The SOLS advantage

MOOT COURT HALL

To hone practical advocacy skills, we have a well-equipped moot court hall that replicates real-world legal settings. These spaces allow students to participate in moot court competitions, simulations, and mock trials, providing them with invaluable courtroom experience.

LEGAL CLINICS

We take pride in our commitment to experiential learning through legal clinics. These clinics provide students with the opportunity to work on real cases under the guidance of experienced faculty and legal professionals. The hands-on experience gained in these clinics allows our students to apply theoretical knowledge to practical situations, preparing them for the challenges of the legal profession.

TECHNOLOGY INFRASTRUCTURE

Recognizing the importance of technology in the legal field, our department is equipped with cutting-edge technology infrastructure. Students have access to online legal research tools, access to online databases such as JSTOR, HeinOnline, Manupatra, SCC online etc., virtual classrooms, and video conferencing, facilitating seamless communication and collaboration.

SEMINAR HALLS

Our seminar halls are designed to facilitate engaging discussions, lectures, and seminars. Equipped with modern audio-visual aids, these spaces provide a platform for scholars, practitioners, and experts to share their insights with our students, fostering a culture of continuous learning.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

Our law library stands as a cornerstone of academic excellence, offering an extensive collection of legal literature, journals, and research materials. The library provides a quiet and conducive environment for study and research, with dedicated spaces for group discussions and collaborative projects.

Eligibility

Passed with 45% marks in PUC / HSC / 12th Grade or Equivalent exam (40% marks for SC/ ST students and 42% marks for OBC students) from a recognized board.

Training & Placements

Headed by a Director and Senior Professor, every school has a dedicated Placement Officer to liaison with the Corporates, providing placement opportunities for students to establish lucrative careers in their chosen field.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

- Structured Career Preparedness Programme (CPP) on Discover-Build-Deliver (DBD) Model from the first Semester
- Industry Specific Training
- Student Support Mechanisms

INTERNSHIPS

The internship cell maintains a cordial relationship with all recruiting agencies, in addition to a large body of independent advocates and solicitors who look towards the CMRU School of Legal Studies as a promising talent pool for recruiting interns and associates.

CMRU Journal for Contemporary Legal Affairs

The CMRU University Journal for Contemporary Legal Affairs (UGC CARE List - 1) is a testament to the sincere commitment of the CMRU School of Legal Studies in establishing and nurturing a platform for meaningful research on contemporary legal issues. The primary objective is to disseminate legal research contributed by distinguished judges, practitioners, academicians, and researchers, thereby exposing readers to the highest standards of academic excellence.

Functioning as a medium for expressing the perspectives of the writers, the journal also serves as a conduit for promoting extensive academic research. Its inception is a direct response to the acknowledgment that law schools have a societal responsibility to contribute to the well-being of the community.

LEAP

The LEAP Program, initiated by CMRU University, aids students in learning to support each other, fostering the building of communities. It encourages the development of a deeper understanding of oneself and instills consistent reflective practices to enhance social well-being.

The CMR advantage

Nurturing excellence through an integrated Design Thinking Pedagogy rooted in creativity-based learning.
