Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AKASH

Dear AKASH BHARADWAJ K

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AKKAL

Dear AKKAL RAJ WOLI

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AKSHAY.

Dear AKSHAY.R

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

ALAN

Dear ALAN MACKLIN

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the "Employee") a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company's operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

ALLVIN I

Dear ALLVIN I

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AMAN

Dear AMAN KUMAR KAUSHIK

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AMEENA

Dear AMEENA AZHAR

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the "Employee") a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company's operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AMITH

Dear AMITH KUMAR K

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

AMITH P

Dear AMITH P PAWAR

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

ANUP B

Dear ANUP B U

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

ANURAG

Dear ANURAG

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 300000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

GEETHA

Dear GEETHA GOKULA .P

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

GIRISH .

Dear GIRISH . M

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Harishtha.

Dear Harishtha.T

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Karunaka

Dear Karunakaran` V

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Kaushal

Dear Kaushal Prakash J

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the "Employee") a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company's operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Kavya D

Dear Kavya D

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

kavya M

Dear kavya M

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

KEERTHI

Dear KEERTHI P

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Kiran

Dear Kiran Alexander Joel

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

KIRAN

Dear KIRAN YADAV R

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

KSHITIJ

Dear KSHITIJ P L

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Lakshmi

Dear Lakshmi M

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Lakshmip

Dear Lakshmipriya M

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Lance F

Dear Lance F Kristen

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

LEE ROY

Dear LEE ROY DA SILVA

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the "Employee") a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company's operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Likith A

Dear Likith A

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Lina Poni

Dear Lina Poni Emmanuel Matayo

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the "Employee") a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the "Company"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company's operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Lithin V

Dear Lithin V

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

NITESH

NITESH KUMAR.M

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2023, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 320,000.00, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:

(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;
(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

STATE STREET.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

STATE STREET.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,

STATE STREET.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

PREM

Dear PREM KUMAR REDDY C

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

R ANIKA

Dear R ANIKA

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

S NIKHIL

Dear S NIKHIL

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

SHANKA

Dear SHANKARGOUDA

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

SRI

Dear SRI RAKSHA RAMESH

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of
StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

SURYA.V

Dear SURYA.V

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

V.PREET

Dear V.PREETHI

We are pleased to offer you (hereinafter also referred to as, the “Employee”) a position in StateStreet Corporate Services Mumbai Private Limited (the “Company”), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, as amended and having its registered office at Bangalore, under the following terms and conditions.

POSITION AND REPORTING LINE

You will be employed in the position of OTC Derivatives, Associate 1, reporting to Ajay Shastry, Assistant Vice President. The Company may also, from time to time, change your duties as required by the Company’s operational requirements.

OFFICE LOCATION

Your normal place of work will be based in Bangalore. However you may be required to work at any other premises which the Company currently has or may later acquire in India. You may also be required to travel within India and abroad for the performance of your duties.

DATE OF COMMENCEMENT

Unless otherwise agreed, your commencement date under this Contract will be August 08, 2021, subject to verification of your credentials for employment by the Company. Please ensure that you read and understand all terms and conditions. While you are required to execute and return all documents prior to commencing in your role, in the event that you commence work before doing so, your commencement will be deemed acceptance of all terms and conditions.

SECURITY/ BACKGROUND CHECK

This offer of employment (and your continuing employment if relevant) is subject to the Company receiving satisfactory responses to the reference and background checks you are required to undertake. These checks include verification of your professional experience and education credentials, fingerprinting and a review of your criminal and credit background.

As it is the Company's expectation that all background checks will be initiated prior to the employment commencing, the Company may terminate this contract immediately (without notice) and the employment will not commence if in the Company's opinion an unsatisfactory reference and/or background check is obtained. You also will be required to complete in a timely manner State Street's on-line Standard of Conduct (and Code of Ethics where applicable) certification and learning assessment upon commencement of employment, as a condition of continued employment.

REMUNERATION

Subject to the due compliance of the Employee's obligations stated herein you shall be entitled to a total gross salary of INR 325000, which will be paid monthly in equal instalments. The remuneration amount will be credited to your bank account on the last working day of each month. The details of your remuneration are included in Exhibit "A". The Company may provide an increase in the remuneration of the Employee at the sole discretion of the Company.

The Company shall be entitled at any time during your employment, and in any event on termination, howsoever arising, to deduct from your remuneration any monies due from you to the Company including but not limited to any amounts required to be withheld by the Company under any applicable taxation statute or when directed to do so by a government authority, or any outstanding loans.

The Company shall also reimburse any reasonable business expenses incurred by you on behalf of the Company, during your employment and arising out of the fulfilment of your responsibilities and duties.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLAN PARTICIPATION

State Street's approach to employee compensation is based on total compensation and pay-for-performance. Employees generally have the opportunity to earn some type of variable, discretionary incentive pay in addition to base compensation through State Street's incentive compensation or structured incentive plans. Incentive compensation may be delivered in the form of immediate or deferred awards. Receipt of incentive compensation is subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plan and deferred award documents approved by the Board of Directors of State Street Corporation (the "Board") or its delegate as in effect from time to time, including any forfeiture and/or clawback provisions therein. Although State Street intends to continue to use incentive compensation and structured incentive plans to reward performance indefinitely, it may amend, modify or terminate its plans and programs at any time. State Street's incentive compensation program is subject to the applicable guidance and regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) and of other United States and international regulators, which may require that certain risk-mitigating features be included in your incentive awards. Should your position will be deemed a "material risk taker" position for FRB purposes, your incentive awards will be subject to applicable clawback/forfeiture requirements.

You will be eligible to be considered for annual discretionary incentive compensation awards under the State Street incentive compensation plan applicable to your role (the "Plan"). Awards under the Plan are made at the sole discretion of the Board or its delegate and are based upon company performance, individual performance, risk factors and such other factors as determined by the Board or its delegate. State Street may adjust the proportion of cash and deferred compensation in each award, the type, form and structure of deferred compensation, as well as the threshold for deferred compensation eligibility at any time

Incentive compensation awards are typically made in the first quarter of each calendar year. You must be employed on the date an award is made in order to earn and receive it.

HOURS OF WORK

You will be required to work 45 hours per week, your hours of work will be communicated to you by your manager. The requirements of your employment do call for some flexibility and you will be expected to work such hours as may be necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of your duties without additional remuneration. You agree that you will not be entitled to any overtime compensation for additional hours devoted to your employment with the Company.

You may be required to work either on day or night shifts. The shift pattern you will be required to work will be determined and communicated to you by your manager. Your hours of work and shift timing may be subject to variation depending on the schedule operated by your respective team or department, for which you will be notified from time to time.

PROBATION PERIOD

For the first three months of your employment, you will be on probation ("Probation Period"), following which the Company may, at its sole discretion, either extend the Probation Period for any period of time (Extended Probation Period) or confirm your employment with the Company.

Your employment with the Company shall, after the completion of the Probation Period and after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, be deemed to have been confirmed unless you, within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Probation Period and within a period of fifteen (15) days after the completion of the Extended Probation Period, if any, receive a notice of termination of your employment with the Company.

Without limiting those reasons, in the interest of transparency we believe it is important to let you know that as a condition of you completing the probation period, some roles require that you satisfactorily pass any relevant induction and training assessments which the Company requires you to undertake within the probation period. Your manager will be able to confirm if this applies to you.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of the notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

If you successfully complete the Probation Period, your employment will continue to be governed by your Contract and the termination provisions listed will apply. For the avoidance of doubt, please also note that the Company may terminate your employment without notice during the Probation Period or Extended Probation Period, if any, in accordance with those provisions set out below (i.e. those relating to termination without notice).

TERMINATION WITH NOTICE

As a permanent employee, following the Probation Period, either you or the Company may terminate your employment at any time by giving to the other sixty (60) days written notice.

Irrespective of who provides notice or initiates the termination, the Company may elect in its absolute discretion to make a payment in lieu of the whole or part of any notice period. The payment in lieu of notice will be calculated by reference to the amount the Company would have become liable to pay you if you had remained in employment and worked your ordinary hours until the end of the notice period.

During the whole or part of any notice period, the Company may direct you:
(a) not to attend the workplace;
(b) not to contact or have any communication with its clients or customers;

(c) not to contact or have any communication with any employee, contractor, consultant or officer of the Company;
(d) not to perform the duties of your position or become involved in any aspect of the Company's business;
(e) to perform duties which are not otherwise part of your position, provided such duties are capable of being performed by you;
(f) to perform any duties from home;
(g) to perform any tasks to assist the Company arrange a proper handover of your duties, including clients, customers and business; or
(h) to cease your access to the Company's computer system and confidential or business sensitive information;
(i) to return any or all company property; or(j) any combination of the above.

TERMINATION WITHOUT NOTICE

Despite any other provision in these Standard terms and conditions, or any other term or condition of your employment, either during or after your Probation Period, the Company may terminate your employment at any time without prior notice if in its opinion you;

(a) commit any serious or persistent breach of your employment or any Company policy or procedure; or
(b) are guilty of any serious misconduct or wilful neglect in the discharge of your employment duties; or
(c) refuse to carry out any lawful and reasonable directions of the Company; are grossly negligent or otherwise incompetent in the performance of your duties;
(d) engage in wilful or negligent conduct which poses a serious risk to health and safety;
(e) are repeatedly absent from work or absent from work for a period of 5 consecutive days without proper explanation from you or without the consent of the Employer;
(f) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors; or
(g) engage in any conduct of a criminal nature (including but not limited to assault, theft and fraud) other than conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Company does not affect your position as an employee;
(h) fail to substantially or satisfactorily perform your duties as a result of physical or mental incapacity (Disability), where the Disability continues for more than three (3) consecutive months or an aggregate of more than five (5) months in any calendar year (Permanent Disability).

If termination is due to death of the employee or you suffer from a permanent disability while employed, the Company shall make due payments as required in connection with your provident fund and gratuity fund to you, your nominee(s) or, if no nomination has been made, to your legal heirs as the case may be.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

You will be entitled to twenty seven (27) days earned leave for every year of service; Leave should be arranged through your department manager.

You will be entitled to take the public holidays as applicable in the state and city of Bangalore, Karnataka and such number of additional holidays as may be decided, from time to time, by the Company.

For further general guidance regarding leave entitlements, please refer to the Company's corporate policies on leave which are available on the Company's corporate policy centre site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBLITIES

During working hours, you are expected to direct your working time and attention honestly, diligently and faithfully to your employment with the Company. You are not permitted to engage in any other employment without the prior written consent of the Company. You must also not engage in any other business activity, whether paid or unpaid, which may conflict with your duties as an employee of the Company or the interests of the Company. You must use your best efforts to protect and promote the Company's interests and welfare and to at all times act in the Company's best interests. During the term of your employment, you must exercise and carry out all duties and observe all lawful directions and comply with State Street's Standard of Conduct.

By accepting employment with the Company, you agree that your position, duties, role and levels of responsibility may be varied from time to time to suit the needs of the Company's business. Irrespective of such variations, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue to apply unless otherwise agreed in writing.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

During your employment you must at all times comply with any and all policies and/or procedures published by the Company from time to time. These policies and procedures do not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract. Instead, they constitute written directions to you with which you must comply.

The Company reserves the right to amend, repeal and implement new policies and procedures from time to time. By accepting employment with the Company, you agree to keep yourself familiar with our policies and procedures (including any amendments, repeals and new procedures).

PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

You will be subject to State Street's Personal Investments Policy. This policy is in place to prevent employees dealing from giving rise to actual or perceived conflicts with the interests of the Company or its clients. The Personal Investments Policy requires you to obtain approval prior to dealing in a number of investment products by you or a range of associated parties.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. As an ongoing condition of your employment, you must also accept, sign and comply with any additional confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement which the Company requires you to enter into relating to your employment with the Company.

Without limiting your obligations of confidentiality to the Company, you must treat any information you gain in the course of your employment as confidential both whilst you remain an employee and in the future. Other than as required in the proper performance of your duties, you must be discreet and not use, discuss or disclose information on the financial administration, product or management structure of or its related bodies corporate, or client information to those not entitled to it including fellow employees. Nor are you able to use this information for your own gain.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

IP Work means any invention, discovery, design, improvement, formula, process, technique, literary or artistic work, or any other item in which intellectual property rights subsist or are capable of subsisting and is wholly or partly created, made or discovered by you either:

(a) in the course of your employment with the Company; or
(b) otherwise using the facilities, resources, time or any other opportunity provided by the Company.

Intellectual property rights means all existing and future rights which are capable of protection by copyright, patent, design, trademark or other registration or other forms of protection available in India or elsewhere.

The IP Work and all intellectual property rights in the IP Work will belong absolutely to the Company, and you agree to do all things necessary and execute any document required to give effect to this ownership. You must immediately and fully communicate to the Company any IP Work created, made or discovered by you.

You consent to the use of all existing and future IP Works made by you in the course of your employment, and agree to waive any moral rights you may have in them, and to consent to any act which amounts to an infringement of any such moral right, in favour of the Company. "Moral rights" includes the right to be identified as the author of the work, the right not to have any other person identified as the author of the work and the right not to have the work subjected to any derogatory treatment.

NON SOLICITATION

Either during your employment or for a period of 6 months following the termination of your employment for any reason, you must not, without the prior fully informed and written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly and either on your own account or for any other person endeavor to:

(a) entice away from the Company or any related bodies corporate, any officer, employee, consultant or contractor, or otherwise interfere with the relationship which the Company or any related bodies corporate maintains with such officer, employee, consultant or contractor; or canvass or solicit orders, custom or business from any person who was a customer, client of or supplier to the Company and with whom you had contact within the last 12 months of your employment.

DEALINGS WITH MEDIA

During your employment, unless it is an inherent requirement of your position and expressly stated within your position description, you must not without the Company's prior, fully informed written consent:

(a) publish to a member of the media or through any form of social media, any information relating to the Company, its related bodies corporate or any of its clients; or

(b) Communicate with any person with the intention of disclosing that information to the media or through any form of social media, or in circumstances where it could be reasonably be believed, anticipated or expected that information may be disclosed to the media or through social media.

PRIVACY

You acknowledge and consent to the Company collecting, storing, using and disclosing your personal information (including but not limited to health, medical and other sensitive information) as reasonably required as a direct or indirect consequence of your employment.

You agree that if you are required to collect, store, use or disclose personal information during the course of your employment, that you will do so in strict compliance with the requirements of all privacy legislation and State Street's privacy policy.

OBLIGATIONS

This offer and your employment with the Company is at all times conditional upon:

(a) you obtaining, retaining and informing the Company of all necessary visas, work permits, business registrations or memberships to enable you to lawfully reside and work in India and fulfil the duties of your position;

(b) you completing and obtaining a response which is satisfactory to the Company, in respect of any declarations, background and employment checks which the Company may require.

STATE STREET.

By accepting these Standard Terms and Conditions, you also warrant to the Company that:

(a) you are competent to properly carry out the duties of your position and that any representations as to qualifications, skills, experience, industry knowledge, business influence, client contacts and employment history made by you are true and accurate; and

(b) you are not subject to any direct or indirect restrictions on your ability to fully perform the duties of your position and will not be breaching any obligation to a third party by entering into this contract.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this employment agreement shall be settled by arbitration to be held in Bangalore, India in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the "Arbitration Act"), as then existing, in the English language, and shall be heard and determined by an arbitral tribunal composed of a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties hereto. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator within 30 (thirty) calendar days of any Party's notice to the other Party of the existence of a dispute, the arbitrator shall be selected according to the Arbitration Act.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prevent either Party from seeking and obtaining injunctive and equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction without the posting of any bond or other security.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties on everything connected with the employment, and it supersedes any prior agreement, or understanding connected with the employment.

You specifically agree that in entering this agreement (or by commencing employment) that you are not relying on any representation by any person in respect of any matter.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep the terms of this letter and your compensation confidential.

If you have any questions regarding your Contract please contact the Global Employee Onboarding Team by email on Onboarding_India@StateStreet.com .

If you accept these terms and conditions, would you please sign the acknowledgment at the end of this letter and return signed copies to us, within 5 days, signifying your acceptance. We look forward to welcoming you to the State Street India Team.

Yours sincerely,
For and on behalf of

Engagement Letter

We are pleased to appoint you in our organization as Assistant Store Manager Trainee subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Your term of engagement will commence from 15 Jul 2021 and expire on 14 Jul 2022 during which you will render services to our Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) premises at Bangalore specified from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter executed by you on 15 Jul 2021. Further you shall be bound by terms of this engagement letter and that you shall act in accordance with the instructions, rules or regulations received by you from TeamLease or any authorized person of TeamLease.

2. You hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

   i. You shall perform the services, in a professional manner, at the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) location until the expiry of the term or termination of your engagement. ii. During the term of your engagement, you shall render services exclusively to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or any of its group companies, subsidiaries or affiliates as instructed by TeamLease. Further you shall not engage either directly or indirectly in any trade, business or employment during the term of your engagement, whether for or without any commercial gain, in any manner whatsoever.

   iii. You shall not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or TeamLease.

   iv. You shall not receive any payments, gifts or gratuities of any nature either directly or indirectly from the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) unless agreed to by TeamLease except for any rewards or incentives based on your performance which shall be at the sole discretion of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   v. You shall extend all cooperation to Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) employees, consultants, representativ es etc., and do all such things as may be necessary and comply with all terms of the engagement letter so as to effectively undertake the work.

   vi. Report and be present at the designated location during the working hours mentioned by the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) and abide by the rules and regulations as intimated by TeamLease.

   vii. Comply with the safety, health and other rules and regulations of TeamLease as intimated to you. viii. Comply with leave policy as intimated through the associate handbook ix. You shall not divulge any trade secret or confidential information which you come across during the term of your engagement or in course of services being provided to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   x. During your engagement, TeamLease reserves the right to transfer you to any location within the territory of India for executing the services to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited). Further TeamLease reserves the right to depute your services to the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) affiliates, group companies or subsidiaries at any location within the territory of India.

3. During the term of this engagement, the nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of a Contract of Service for a fixed period. By executing this letter of engagement neither TeamLease offers you any employment with TeamLease nor you become an employee of TeamLease. Upon expiry or termination of this engagement letter, your engagement with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

4. You shall not act in any act subversive of any discipline or insubordination of your duties or any misconduct including but not limited to theft, fraud or misrepresentation or any event such that of prolonged absenteeism, destruction or damage to the property of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited), then in such event, TeamLease shall be at liberty to take necessary disciplinary action against you and shall be at liberty to forthwith terminate this engagement.

5. In case TeamLease finds your services are not in conformity with the requisite service level standards, then TeamLease reserves the right to initiate a performance improvement plan and further in case you fail to perform as

We have a tie up with ICICI Bank and HSBC Bank for salary accounts. Upon joining, please contact your HR to open an account with one of the banks.

ANNEXURE - III

We are pleased to highlight few of our key initiatives and policies for your ready reference.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

Employee Assistance Programme (EAP)

We care for you and your family's overall wellbeing and through the EAP, we bring to you an exclusive counselling service. This program is run in association with ICAS India, world leader in Wellness services to help you and your family maintain a healthy & balanced lifestyle.

Key highlights of the program are External Counsellors, Telephone Counselling, Face-to-Face Counselling,
E-Therapy, Complete Confidentiality Assurance, English & Regional Language compatibility, Available 24 x 7 x 365 and at absolutely no extra cost to you.

Toll Free Helpline: 1800 22 70 22 | Toll Helpline: 022-2649 3919
E-counselling: wellness&wellbeing@icasindia.com
All Face-to-face counselling would be based on need and prior appointment
To know more about EAP, contact your HRBP or write to eap@NielsenIQ.com

The purpose of EAP is to help you and your family deal with everyday concerns & problems, overcome emotional challenges through professional, timely and confidential services.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

Employee Assistance Programme (EAP)

We care for you and your family's overall wellbeing and through the EAP, we bring to you an exclusive counselling service. This program is run in association with ICAS India, world leader in Wellness services to help you and your family maintain a healthy & balanced lifestyle.

We are pleased to highlight few of our key initiatives and policies for your ready reference.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

Please confirm you acceptance by affixing your signature and return the attached "Employee Confidentiality, Proprietary Rights and Conflicts Agreement", appended herein.

Working Hours – Your work hours including any need to work in shifts will be informed to you on your joining date. NielsenIQ reserves the right to introduce new shift timings/schedules depending on the nature and exigencies of business which more particularly are required to cater to the internal/external client's ever changing demands. Any variation in your work hours will be communicated to you by your supervisor. Non adherence to this provision constitutes a ground for termination. Any appeals against such a termination notice can be appealed against to the Chief Human Resource Officer, whose decision shall be final in this regard.

Privacy and personal information (including sensitive personal data or information) - By accepting this offer of employment, you consent to NielsenIQ collecting, using, or disclosing your personal information for any purpose directly or indirectly connected with your employment. This may include transfer of your personal information within the organisation to other states, territory or country as required by law for internal administrative purposes.

Some examples of personal information as detailed under Rule 3 of the Information Technology(Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data and information) Rules, 2011 ("IT Rules"), would be (i) financial information such as bank account or other payment instrument details; and(ii) medical records . This may be collected used or disclosed for purposes including but not limited to administering your employment relationship, processing your pay, conducting background checks and generally discharging all human resource management activities.

Please note that NielsenIQ will only collect personal information for the purposes mentioned above. The personal information so collected by NielsenIQ is solely utilized for the specific purpose of maintaining a repository of employee information in order to comply with statutory or regulatory requirements prescribed by applicable law or for internal requirements as mentioned above.

NielsenIQ represents that except for the purposes mentioned herein or if required under law, NielsenIQ will not disclose to any third party or otherwise use in any manner the personal information, without your prior consent. You provide your unequivocal consent to NielsenIQ using your personal information in the manner specified above.

Assignment Guide/Right to Amend – Conditions and circumstances not covered in this letter will be in accordance with established Company policy. The Company reserves the right to revise or amend the provisions outlined in this agreement as circumstances necessitate. This agreement sets forth the entire understanding and agreement of the parties and supersedes any and all oral or written agreements and understandings between the parties as to the subject matter of this agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, this agreement may be changed only in writing and with the signatures of all parties.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction – This employment cum appointment order shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The courts at Mumbai/New Delhi shall have exclusive jurisdiction on the matters arising from or herein, without regard to the principles of conflicts of laws.

Notices – Any notice or other communication to be given by one party to the other pursuant to the employment cum appointment order shall be made in writing and signed by or on behalf of the party giving it. It shall be served by letter or facsimile transmission or email and shall be deemed to be duly given or made when delivered (in the case of personal delivery), at the time of transmission (in the case of facsimile transmission or email, provided that the sender has received a receipt indicating proper transmission) and a hard copy of such notice or communication is forthwith sent by prepaid post to the relevant address of such party) or 5 (five) days after being dispatched in the post, postage prepaid, by registered mail to such party at the address set out above in case of the employee or the NielsenIQ office as applicable depending on your location of employment.

Should you agree to the terms set out in this letter, please kindly sign and return the duplicate copy of this letter together with the "Employee Confidentiality, Proprietary Rights and Conflicts Agreement" to us.

We are all looking forward to working with you in your role with NielsenIQ. We think the future holds great things, and we look forward to you sharing in our success.

Yours faithfully

For and on behalf of NielsenIQ (India) Private Limited

Dear Sammedh Chaugala,

Subject: Letter of intent

With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

Engagement Letter

We are pleased to appoint you in our organization as Assistant Store Manager Trainee subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Your term of engagement will commence from 15 Jul 2021 and expire on 14 Jul 2022 during which you will render services to our Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) premises at Bangalore specified from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter executed by you on 15 Jul 2021. Further you shall be bound by terms of this engagement letter and that you shall act in accordance with the instructions, rules or regulations received by you from TeamLease or any authorized person of TeamLease.

2. You hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

   i. You shall perform the services, in a professional manner, at the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) location until the expiry of the term or termination of your engagement. ii. During the term of your engagement, you shall render services exclusively to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or any of its group companies, subsidiaries or affiliates as instructed by TeamLease. Further you shall not engage either directly or indirectly in any trade, business or employment during the term of your engagement, whether for or without any commercial gain, in any manner whatsoever.

   iii. You shall not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or TeamLease.

   iv. You shall not receive any payments, gifts or gratuities of any nature either directly or indirectly from the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) unless agreed to by TeamLease except for any rewards or incentives based on your performance which shall be at the sole discretion of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   v. You shall extend all cooperation to Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) employees, consultants, representativ es etc., and do all such things as may be necessary and comply with all terms of the engagement letter so as to effectively undertake the work.

   vi. Report and be present at the designated location during the working hours mentioned by the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) and abide by the rules and regulations as intimated by TeamLease.

   vii. Comply with the safety, health and other rules and regulations of TeamLease as intimated to you. viii. Comply with leave policy as intimated through the associate handbook ix. You shall not divulge any trade secret or confidential information which you come across during the term of your engagement or in course of services being provided to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   x. During your engagement, TeamLease reserves the right to transfer you to any location within the territory of India for executing the services to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited). Further TeamLease reserves the right to depute your services to the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) affiliates, group companies or subsidiaries at any location within the territory of India.

3. During the term of this engagement, the nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of a Contract of Service for a fixed period. By executing this letter of engagement neither TeamLease offers you any employment with TeamLease nor you become an employee of TeamLease. Upon expiry or termination of this engagement letter, your engagement with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

4. You shall not act in any act subversive of any discipline or insubordination of your duties or any misconduct including but not limited to theft, fraud or misrepresentation or any event such that of prolonged absenteeism, destruction or damage to the property of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited), then in such event, TeamLease shall be at liberty to take necessary disciplinary action against you and shall be at liberty to forthwith terminate this engagement.

5. In case TeamLease finds your services are not in conformity with the requisite service level standards, then TeamLease reserves the right to initiate a performance improvement plan and further in case you fail to perform as

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

SYED FAROOKH AHMED

Engagement Letter

We are pleased to appoint you in our organization as Assistant Store Manager Trainee subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Your term of engagement will commence from 15 Jul 2021 and expire on 14 Jul 2022 during which you will render services to our Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) premises at Bangalore specified from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter executed by you on 15 Jul 2021. Further you shall be bound by terms of this engagement letter and that you shall act in accordance with the instructions, rules or regulations received by you from TeamLease or any authorized person of TeamLease.

2. You hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

   i. You shall perform the services, in a professional manner, at the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) location until the expiry of the term or termination of your engagement. ii. During the term of your engagement, you shall render services exclusively to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or any of its group companies, subsidiaries or affiliates as instructed by TeamLease. Further you shall not engage either directly or indirectly in any trade, business or employment during the term of your engagement, whether for or without any commercial gain, in any manner whatsoever.

   iii. You shall not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or TeamLease.

   iv. You shall not receive any payments, gifts or gratuities of any nature either directly or indirectly from the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) unless agreed to by TeamLease except for any rewards or incentives based on your performance which shall be at the sole discretion of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   v. You shall extend all cooperation to Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) employees, consultants, representativ es etc., and do all such things as may be necessary and comply with all terms of the engagement letter so as to effectively undertake the work.

   vi. Report and be present at the designated location during the working hours mentioned by the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) and abide by the rules and regulations as intimated by TeamLease.

   vii. Comply with the safety, health and other rules and regulations of TeamLease as intimated to you. viii. Comply with leave policy as intimated through the associate handbook ix. You shall not divulge any trade secret or confidential information which you come across during the term of your engagement or in course of services being provided to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).

   x. During your engagement, TeamLease reserves the right to transfer you to any location within the territory of India for executing the services to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited). Further TeamLease reserves the right to depute your services to the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) affiliates, group companies or subsidiaries at any location within the territory of India.

3. During the term of this engagement, the nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of a Contract of Service for a fixed period. By executing this letter of engagement neither TeamLease offers you any employment with TeamLease nor you become an employee of TeamLease. Upon expiry or termination of this engagement letter, your engagement with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

4. You shall not act in any act subversive of any discipline or insubordination of your duties or any misconduct including but not limited to theft, fraud or misrepresentation or any event such that of prolonged absenteeism, destruction or damage to the property of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited), then in such event, TeamLease shall be at liberty to take necessary disciplinary action against you and shall be at liberty to forthwith terminate this engagement.

5. In case TeamLease finds your services are not in conformity with the requisite service level standards, then TeamLease reserves the right to initiate a performance improvement plan and further in case you fail to perform as per the said requisite standards, despite being provided the performance improvement plan, then TeamLease reserves the right to terminate your services accordingly.

6. Either party may terminate this engagement by issuing 30 days notice in writing or payment of 30 days' basic salary in lieu of notice thereof. Teamlease reserves the right to waive the applicable notice period, at its discretion. Notwithstanding anything contained herein in case of any breach of the terms of this engagement letter, TeamLease shall be entitled to forthwith terminate your engagement.

7. Termination of this engagement shall not affect the obligations of the parties that have been incurred prior to such termination and TeamLease shall promptly settle all your dues after making the applicable deductions.

8. You agree to defend, indemnify and hold TeamLease or the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) harmless from any and all claims, damages, liability, attorneys fees and expenses on account of your failure to perform any of your obligations under this engagement letter or for misconduct or for violation of any law or for creation of any legal liability by you.

9. In the event of any dispute between you and TeamLease, the parties shall negotiate with each other and endevaour to amicably resolve the said dispute. In case of any failure to amicably resolve any dispute then the same shall be referred to a sole arbitrator appointed by TeamLease. The arbitration shall be conducted in English language, in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, at Bangalore, Karnataka, India. This Engagement Letter shall be governed by the laws of India.

10. Details of your salary breakup will be as per the Annexure attached herein. You hereby authorize TeamLease to make all salary payments required to be made to you by TeamLease including all reimbursements either by way of Cheque or by directly crediting the amounts to your bank account.

11. You will be entitled to an employer's contribution of Provident fund to the extent of 12% of your basic salary and applicable ESI contribution. You will also be covered by Medical and Accident Insurance and will be entitled to all other statutory benefits whichever is applicable during the contract period. It is hereby clarified that if you fail to submit the ESIC, PF, Gratuity nomination forms together with any other document as required under the applicable labour legislations, TeamLease shall not incur any liability with regards to any Claims under the said applicable labour legislations.

12. In addition to the terms contained herein, your relationship with TeamLease may be subject to such other additional terms and conditions as may be communicated to you from time to time in writing by TeamLease and you hereby agree to have read and clearly understood the terms of employment provided in the Service Rules, which is attached herein.

13. During your engagement with TeamLease, if we find any irregularity or insufficiency in the documents submitted by you or in case, we find any incorrect, inaccurate or any misleading information while conducting reference checks then this engagement letter stands cancelled/revoked.
14. The nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of contract of service from 15 Jul 2024 to 14 Jul 2025. Upon expiry or termination of the work Assignment, your employment with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.
15. With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

10. Equitable Rights

Associate acknowledges that any Confidential Information that comes into the possession and / or knowledge of Associate is of a unique, highly confidential and proprietary nature. It is further acknowledged by Associate that the disclosure, distribution, dissemination and / or release by Associate of the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of TCS or any breach of this Agreement by Associate will cause TCS to suffer severe, immediate and irreparable damage and that upon any such breach or any threat thereof, TCS shall without prejudice to any other remedies available to it, be entitled to appropriate equitable relief including the relief of specific performance and injunctive relief, in addition to whatever remedies it might have at law.

11. General

(a) The provisions hereof shall be interpreted, determined and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

(b) In the event of any dispute or disagreement over the interpretation of any of the terms herein contained or may claim or liability of any party including that of surety, the same shall be referred to a person to be nominated by TCS, whose decision shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto. Subject to the above, the arbitration shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1999 or any modifications or re-enactment thereof. Associate confirms that the fact that the arbitrator shall be a nominee of TCS shall not be a ground for objecting to such arbitration or challenging the decision of the arbitrator. The venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai. Subject to the above arbitration clause, the Parties agreed to the binding jurisdiction of the Courts at Mumbai under the laws of India.

(c) If any provision hereof shall be found by a judicial tribunal to be contrary to governing law, it shall be deemed null and void without annulling or rendering invalid the remainder of the Agreement and if the invalid portion is such that the remainder cannot be sustained without it, the Parties herein shall find a suitable replacement to the invalid portion that shall be legally valid.

(d) This Confidentiality clause along with other documents executed by Associate or referenced in any such documents constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining to the subject matter thereof. No delay of omission of either Party in exercising or enforcing any of their rights or remedies hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof.

Further, Company shall be entitled to, at its sole discretion, withhold the relieving letter and all other documents regarding your employment hereunder.

12. Mode of Communication

12.1 Official E-mail ID shall be allocated to you after joining. Any information including letter/notice of confirmation, transfer, promotion, termination, resignation, policy matters, etc. by the Company shall be received/sent to you through this e-mail ID. You represent and warrant to use this E-mail ID only for the purpose of this employment.

12.2 Other than general notices, which may be intimated by e-mail, general notice, announcement on the Company's web site, bulletin e-mail, bulletin boards and other similar postings, notices will be provided to you in person, by email or by ordinary post at the address given by you at the time of your employment or such other address as may be intimated by you to the management thereafter.

13. Dispute Resolution

13.1 In case of any dispute or difference in respect of interpretation of the terms & conditions of this agreement, both the parties shall resolve the same amicably through discussions by the duly appointed representatives. However, any dispute having not resolved shall be referred to the sole arbitration by a person duly nominated by the company as an arbitrator, whose decision shall befinal and binding on both the parties. The arbitration shall be at Delhi and proceedings shall be in English.

14. Confidentiality

14.1 "Confidential Information" means any proprietary or confidential information, work product (whether produced by you or other resources of the Company or provided to you by Company or on Company's and its affiliates and their employees, contractors and/or clients behalf) designs, business information or plans, inventions, technical data, business strategies, trade secrets or know- how, in any media of Company, its affiliates and their employees, contractors and/or clients, whether oral or written or in electronic format, and whether marked as confidential or proprietary or not, including but not limited to, research, business plans, product plans, service offerings or services descriptions, projects or opportunities, proposals, Work Product or deliverables, contractor, customer or client lists, distribution and sales methods, sales and profit figures, finances, titles and descriptions of any patents or patent applications filed or which could be applied for in any country or jurisdiction, methodologies, training materials, personnel information and internal publications. Confidential Information shall not include information which is publicly available.

14.2 You agree, as part of your employment hereunder, you will have access, directly or indirectly, to certain Confidential Information of Company and its affiliates and their employees, contractors, and/or clients. At any time during the term of your employment, you agree to execute non-disclosure or similar agreements required by the Company and its affiliates and their employees, contractors, and/or clients with respect to such Confidential Information.

14.3 During the term of your employment and thereafter, you shall:

(a) Hold the Confidential Information in the strictest confidence.

(b) Not disclose or use or attempt to use or disclose, the Confidential Information, except as expressly permitted by the Company and solely for the purpose of which such Confidential Information was disclosed to you.

(c) Not disclose or divulge the Confidential Information to or for the benefit of any third person or entity without the prior authorization of the Company.

(d) Give prompt notice to the company of any actual or attempted unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information.

(e) Ensure the compliance of SEBI (Prevention of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, and the Code of Conduct made in terms thereof.

(f) Return the Confidential Information, including any copies or reproductions, at Company request or upon termination of your employment. Your obligations under this Section shall remain in effect and survive any termination or expiration of your employment or these Terms of Employment.

Company shall be entitled to immediate injunctive or similar relief upon a potential or actual breach of this Section by you, including in the event, where you take up or attempt to take up employment with or act or attempt to act as a consultant or contractor to any person who may be a competitor of Company or take up or attempt to take up employment or contract with any person in a manner that may result in disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information.

15. Intellectual Property

15.1 You agree that any rights, title and interest whatsoever, including, but not limited to, patents, copyright, trade secret and design rights, mask rights, whether registerable or not, arising or created as a result of the development of and/or the application of any tangible or intangible work product or materials produced by you during or as a consequence of your employment, whetheralone or in conjunction with others and whether during normal working hours or not, including, butnot limited to, or other material which you conceive, discover or create during or in consequence of employment hereunder ("Work Product") shall belong exclusively to the Company. You hereby convey ownership in such rights, title and interest to Company and its affiliates upon inception or development.

15.2 All Work Product shall constitute a work(s) made for hire under all copyright acts. To the extent that any Work Product does not constitute a work made for hire under the foregoing laws, you hereby irrevocably assign all worldwide right, title, and interest (including without limitation, patents, copyright, trade secret, trademarks, design rights, contract and licensing rights) in such Work Product to Company and its affiliates. You retain no rights to use the Work Product and agree not to challenge the validity of Company's and its affiliates' ownership in the Work Product. You hereby forever waive all moral rights in the Work Product and any results or proceeds therefrom, even ifafter expiration or termination of your employment hereunder. If you have any rights to the Work Product that cannot be assigned to Company or its affiliates, you hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waive the enforcement of such rights and all claims and causes of action of any kind against Company and its affiliates and their employees, contractors or clients with respect to such rights and grant to Company and its affiliates an exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, sublicensable, fully paid-up and royalty free license to such Work Product, or part thereof. On termination or expiration of your employment or these Terms of Employment, you will deliver to Company all Work Product, including any parts or copies thereof completed, created and/or prepared up through the date of termination and all copies thereof.

15.3 You agree to, for no further consideration, execute any documents and take any other actions reasonably requested by Company and its affiliates and their clients and contractors to achieve the objectives of this Section (including waiver of any such rights including authors special rights under Section 57 of the Copyright Act 1957). In the event that Company is unable for any reason, after reasonable effort, to secure your signature on any document needed to perfect the title of Company and its affiliates, you hereby irrevocably designate and appoint Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as your agent and attorney in fact to act for and on your behalf to execute, file and verify such documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts with the same legal force and effect as if executed by you.

15.4 You agree that you will not violate or attempt to violate the intellectual property rights, interests, or title of any third party. Your obligations under this Section shall remain in effect and survive any termination or expiration of your employment or these Terms of Employment. Company shall be entitled to immediate injunctive or similar relief upon a potential or actual breach of this Section by you.

Dear Dheeraj C,

Subject: Letter of intent

With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

4.3 Daily starting and finishing times and breaks shall comply with the respective company operational arrangements. The Company is entitled to make changes to this.

5 REMUNERATION

5.1 The Employee shall receive an annual salary in the amount of INR 3,36,000.00 gross. The remuneration is to be paid in Indian Rupees in twelve (12) equal parts.

5.2 Payment shall be made on the last day of the month by bank transfer to a bank account of the Employee, details of which shall be given within one (1) week of the conclusion of the contract.

5.3 The remunerations paid to the Employee shall be subject to usual statutory and other deductions, including tax and any other contributions normally required to be withheld by an Employer under applicable laws in India.

5.4 The Employee shall be solely responsible for paying any taxes direct or indirect, State or local and other obligations and the filing of any required returns or other information relating hereto.

5.5 The Employee is obligated to keep the amount of his payments confidential.

6 ACCEPTING THIRD-PARTY BENEFITS

The Company is committed to ensuring all business relationships with suppliers and clients are legal and based on professional integrity. The Employee shall strictly adhere to Company's business conduct and Integrity policy and refrain from accepting gifts from Vendors / Suppliers / Customers / Other agencies at all times. The Employee is obligated to immediately inform the Company of any such attempts made towards him.

7 OVERTIME/OVERTIME PAY

The Employee is permitted trust-based working hours. In return any overtime worked is compensated in full by salary without any additional entitlement to overtime pay or other compensation.

8 INABILITY TO ATTENT TO WORK

8.1 Any inability to carry out duties shall be reported to the Country Manager or direct supervisor immediately, as well as the duration and the reason. This must be done between 8:00 a.m. at the earliest and 9:00 a.m. at the latest (sick report).

8.2 On the last day of absence from work the Country Manager or direct supervisor shall be informed about when the employee will resume his/her work by phone. This must be done by 4:00 p.m. at the latest (recovery report).

8.3 If the Employee is ill for longer than two (2) days, a doctor's note regarding his inability to attend work and the expected duration shall be provided not later than on the third (3) day after the commencement of the inability to work. A new doctor's note shall be submitted on the next working day after the expiry of the expected duration of the inability to attend work as stated in the doctor's note.

8.4 If the Employee repeatedly and, despite warnings, fails to inform the Company of his illness and / or fails to present the Company with a doctor's note, the Company is entitled to terminate the employment contract without adhering to a notice period.

9 CONTINUED REMUNERATION WHEN UNABLE TO ATTEND WORK

9.1 If the Employee is not able to attend work due to illness, he shall be entitled to a maximum of twelve (12) days per annum of paid sick leave.

9.2 Accrued sick leave can't be carried over to the next calendar year.

9.3 Paid sick leave may not be used to extend a holiday or vacation and once an employee has given notice to quit. Sick leave will not be paid out upon the termination.

9.4 If the Employee has the right to claim damages from a third party regarding loss of earnings which he is entitled to because he is unable to attend work, he hereby assigns this right to the Company if his salary continues to be paid while he is unable to attend work.

9.5 In accordance with the agreed regulations above, the Employee shall, in particular, immediately provide the Company with all information necessary to enforce their claim for damages.

9.6 The Employee is further advised that the Company is entitled to refuse to continue to pay his remuneration if the Employee has not satisfied his obligations arising from section 8 and 9 of this contract.

9.7 The Employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of not availed sick leave at any time.

10 ANNUAL LEAVE

10.1 The Employee shall receive 18 (eighteen) working days of annual/privileged leave with full pay per calendar year. If the employment contract is not in force for a whole year, the Employee shall receive 1/12 of his annual leave entitlement for each completed calendar month.

10.2 The Company must approve when annual leave is taken. The Employee must request annual leave in good time. Annual leave must be discussed with the Head of Department and must abide by the valid arrangements regarding absence cover in the respective area. Disrupting normal business operations is to be avoided at all costs.

10.3 Annual leave must be taken in the current leave year. The leave year begins on January 01st and ends on December 31st. Carrying annual leave over to the next calendar year is only permitted with the consent of the Company. In the event annual leave is carried over, it must be taken by March 31st of the following year at the latest.

Exceptions to this require special management approval.

10.4 Upon termination of the Employment (however occasioned) the Employee shall be paid in lieu of any accrued and not availed annual leave to which the Employee becomes entitled during the Employment. Payment for accrued annual leave shall be calculated on the basis of the rate of the Basic Salary. The Annual term shall be calculated exclusive of public holidays.

10.5 The Employee is entitled to 7 days of Public Holidays, which are defined as per Company policy. The Company is entitled to change these Public Holidays due to operational reasons at any time.

10.6 The Employee shall be entitled to 2 (two) days paid casual leave per calendar year. This leave is available to use as it is accrued. Accrued leave can't be carried over to the next calendar year.

10.7 Any leave is subject to approval by the Company and shall be in accordance with the relevant regulations regarding temporary replacements. Interruption of business operations has to be avoided.

11 TERMINATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

11.1 As stated in section 1 this employment contract is for a fixed term until 03.10.2022 and shall end on that date without notice having to be given.

11.2 On completion of the probation period, either initial, or extended, as the case may be, the Employment of the Employee with the Company will end as defined under clause 1.

11.3 Either party can terminate this Agreement with a written notice of two (2) months or two (2) months' salary in lieu of notice. The official notification becomes valid upon arrival of delivery.

11.4 In any case of notice, the Company is entitled to release the Employee from work under deduction of any vacation time remaining due up to the expiration of the period of notice.

11.5 The right to terminate the Contract extraordinarily remains unaffected. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Company shall be entitled to terminate the Contract summarily by written notice and without any payment in lieu of notice (but without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the Company for any breach of this Contract of Employment and to the Employee's continuing obligations) in any of the following events:

(a) If the Employee commits any serious or wilful or persistent breach or breaches of any express or implied term of this Contract.

(b) If the Employee commits any serious or wilful or persistent breach or breaches of any express or implied Company policy.

(c) If the Company has good reason to believe that the Employee has committed any criminal offence or been guilty of any dishonesty or serious misconduct whether during the performance of his duties or otherwise.

(d) If the Employee's petitions for bankruptcy or has a bankruptcy order made against him or applies to take the benefit of any legislation for the relief of insolvent debtors or if he makes any composition with his creditors.

(e) If any information relating to the Employee's suitability for Employment by the Company and provided in the course of applying for Employment is found to be materially false or misleading.

11.6 A notice by the Employee may be submitted to the Supervisor/Director / Managing Director of the Company.

11.7 It is not permitted to terminate the employment contract giving proper notice before the agreed start date.

11.8 Upon cessation of this employment contract or in the event that the Company has granted leave from duty, the Employee must immediately and completely release to the Company all documents, objects and data regarding the affairs of the Company, especially keys, badges, telephones, computers, books, models, and recordings of any type including any duplicates for copies in his possession. The Employee acknowledges that all objects and data are the property of the Company and therefore he has no right to retention. If the Company property is not returned, a fee of INR 3,500.00 (three thousand five hundred) shall be deducted from the salary of the Employee.

11.9 The employment contract shall cease automatically without notice of termination upon expiry of the month in which the Employee reaches the age of 65 or when a total loss of working capacity is ascertained.

12 CONFIDENTIALTY

12.1 The Employee is obligated to keep all confidential matters, in particular business and trade secrets of the Company, and companies and persons affiliated with the Company strictly confidential. This obligation shall also continue to persist after the cessation of the employment contract.

12.2 All documents relating to the Company or to companies and persons affiliated with the Company, in particular all notes, specifications for tenders and contracts, records, reports, correspondence and similar documents including any copies thereof, all data carriers/data and all items provided to the Employee shall be handled with care and may only be used for business purposes. Removing these items from the business premises or a reproduction of the data/items is prohibited.

12.3 When the employment contract ends or upon commencement of a leave of absence when notice to terminate the employment contract has been given the Employee shall return to the Company unprompted all documents, data carriers and items in his possession which were provided to him during his employment. During the period of the employment contract this is to be done if ordered to do so. This applies correspondingly to non-physical information and materials, such as computer programs and other data, for example. The Employee is not permitted to retain back-ups of these.

12.4 The Employee is obligated to keep individual arrangements in or regarding this contract of employment confidential towards third parties. This includes in particular salary and, in case of fixed term contracts, the duration.

13 REPORTING CHANGES

Changes to marital status, place of residence and matters which could cause special statutory privileges, e.g. severe disablement and other matters which are important to the Company, shall be reported to the Company immediately.

14 CODE OF CONDUCT

14.1 The Employee shall strictly adhere to the Company's code of conduct and all the disciplinary rules and regulations as in force from time to time.

14.2 The Employee shall refrain from engaging in any illegal or immoral activities within Company premises as well outside which can bring disrepute to the Company.

14.3 The Employee shall not use Company's assets and facilities for their private use without prior information and approval from his supervisor. The Employee shall refrain from doing his personal work / private business during the office working hours.

14.4 Whilst the Company encourages the use of email and the internet to aid communication and improve efficiency, inappropriate use of these systems can cause serious problems which may involve legal claims against both the Company and individual Employee. In line with the Hemmersbach Group, therefore the Employee agrees to abide by the rules of the Company Policy.

15 USE OF EQUIPMENT

The Employee undertakes to comply with the rules of the Company in force from time to time concerning the use of materials, equipment and computer systems of the Company and the Group Companies. The Employee gives his consent to a representative of the Company gaining access to the email of the Employee in case of absence or in order to protect the interest of the Company.

16 DATA PROTECTION

Any data arising due to and during the employment will be stored and processed in the headquarters of the Hemmersbach Group, based in Nuremberg, Germany. Both parties shall therefore adhere to the statutory stipulations of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) under European law, while considering the local data protection requirements. The Employee gives his consent to the Company and the Hemmersbach Group of Companies processing and transferring work related data (including data relating to sickness affecting the performance of the Employee) within India and abroad as the case may be for purposes related to the Employment, other administrative purposes or any other purpose related to the collection, storage or transfer of personal data in compliance with applicable Indian law.

17 BACKGROUND CHECK

17.1 The Employee agrees to provide the Company with an official document issued by the police or a governmental agency (e.g. criminal record / certificate of good conduct) in order to testify any criminal records as part of a background check. This certificate or at least the confirmation of the request should be presented to the Company at the latest on the first working day.

17.2 The Employee agrees to undergo further background checks (e.g. advanced security vetting), if these are or will be required for the role.

18 WRITTEN FORM AND EXISTENCE OF THE CONTRACT

18.1 Ancillary agreements and amendments are only valid, if they are in writing, signed and have approval by decision of the Shareholders' meeting; this also applies to the waiver of this written form requirement.

18.2 If one of the provisions of this contract is or becomes invalid, in whole or in part, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. In such a case the contract shall be executed as the Parties intended. If the validity of a provision of performance or time is affected, it shall be replaced by the provision permitted by law.

19 JURISDICTION

The terms of this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of India and both parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Bangalore to settle any disputes that may arise in connection with this Employment.

20 COPIES OF THIS CONTRACT

The Company and the Employee have each received one copy of this contract.

21 MISCELLANEOUS

21.1 The Employee is not permitted to use the Company's Internet or telephone for private purposes Likewise sending private emails is prohibited.

21.2 Working or driving a company car under the influence of alcohol or drugs is strictly prohibited.

21.3 The company shall be informed in writing of the loss of your driving licence including information regarding the duration of and reason for said loss. If a driving licence is required to carry out his role the Company reserves the right to terminate the employment contract without notice.

21.4 The Company is entitled to save all use of the email system and the Internet in order to monitor adherence to the above provisions using the saved data for a maximum duration of three months.

The undersigned hereby acknowledge that they have read and fully understand the terms of this Agreement, the terms and conditions of which are hereby incorporated and acknowledged by this document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first below written.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

Such payment shall be subject to deductions of applicable taxes, and other levies, contributions, etc. as per the relevant laws and contractual terms as may be applicable and amended from time to time. Your remunerationincludes any amounts or components that law or regulation requires the Company to pay you as an employee(Statutory Payments). If the law revises the rates of any Statutory Payments or imposes an additional tax burden on the Company on the payment of any component of your Salary, the Company may revise the individual componentsof your remuneration such that the total amount of cost incurred by the Company on account of your remuneration continues to remain the same after revising the individual components.

c. The Company may at its sole discretion from time to time review your remuneration, normally once annually.Where the Company agrees to revise your remuneration, you will be notified of it in
d. writing. Until the Companynotifies you of a revision in your remuneration, the latest written communication to you giving details of your Salary shall apply. You agree that all such revisions shall be binding on you.

4. Probation:

a. Your appointment will be on probation for a period of six months (Probation Period). You will be advised in writing upon satisfactory completion of the Probation Period. If you receive no such communication, the Probation Periodwill be deemed to have been extended until the Company advises you in writing of confirmation in your appointmentor notifying you otherwise.

b. The Company may terminate your employment by a prior written notice of at least 1 month (or payment ofproportionate remuneration for any shortfall in the notice period) at any time during or at the end of the Probation Period without assigning any reason for such termination.

c. You may terminate your employment by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 1 month at any time during the or at the end of the probation period.

5. Statutory Benefits:

a. Subject to clause above, you will be eligible to statutory benefits such as provident fund and gratuity, as detailedin the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment", and under the relevant policy in force as revised and amended from time to time.

6. Leave:

a. You will be entitled to leave, in accordance with the policies of the Company for the time being in force. At the commencement of your employment, your leave entitlement will be as set out in the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment"

7. Information Provided by You, Reference Checks, Background Check:

a. The information and documents submitted by you before the commencement of your employment (or subsequently) (including your resume, application forms, information specifically provided under clause 7(b), etc.)or at anytime thereafter form the basis of, as relevant, offering employment to you and continuation of your employment.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

a. The information and documents submitted by you before the commencement of your employment (or subsequently) (including your resume, application forms, information specifically provided under clause 7(b), etc.)or at anytime thereafter form the basis of, as relevant, offering employment to you and continuation of your employment.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

Intellectual Property related Undertaking

By this undertaking (Undertaking), I agree, acknowledge and undertake as follows:

1. If at any time in the course of my employment with the Company, I make or discover or participate in the making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, I: i. Will promptly make full and complete disclosure aboutthe Intellectual Property to the Company; and ii. Hereby agree that all such Intellectual Property will be the absolute property of the Company and that I shall have no rights with respect to such Intellectual Property.The term 'Intellectual Property' means and includes inventions (whether patentable or not), copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary information, trade marks, logos, know how, processes, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases and moral rights and all works, whether present or arising in future (whether or not , patent, copyright or other similar protection has been applied for registration or granted registration) or forms of protection having equivalent effect anywhere inthe world. For the avoidance of doubt, this Undertaking does not limit my moral rights to the extent permitted by law.

2. I will do all things necessary, at the Company's request and expense (whether during or after the term of your employment) to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property vest in the Company including withoutlimitation: (a) execution of necessary documents and written confirmations; (b) execution of powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property or enforcing the Company's rights in such Intellectual Property; (c) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property. I agree that the benefits of any proceeds from any action that the Company takes in relation to enforcing its rights in the Intellectual Property belong exclusively to the Company. I further agree that the Company's rights granted by me by this Undertaking will not be impaired by any non-use of the Intellectual Property vested in the Company.

3. I agree that payment of remuneration by the Company to me includes consideration for the rights granted by me under this Undertaking and that there are, in addition, no royalties or any other payments that are due orwill accrue to me in consideration of the rights granted by me under this Undertaking.

4. Where I have any moral rights under law with respect to any such Intellectual Property, I hereby waive anysuch rights to the fullest extent permitted by law from time to time. Even where law does not permit such waiver of moral rights, I hereby undertake not to exercise such moral rights in any manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the Intellectual Property rights in the Company.

5. I will not do anything that is inconsistent with the rights granted by me under this Undertaking or otherwise take advantage of any legal possibility of staking a claim or right over any part of the rights in the Intellectual Property assigned to the Company under this Undertaking.

c. You may terminate your employment by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 1 month at any time during the or at the end of the probation period.

5. Statutory Benefits:

a. Subject to clause above, you will be eligible to statutory benefits such as provident fund and gratuity, as detailedin the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment", and under the relevant policy in force as revised and amended from time to time.

6. Leave:

a. You will be entitled to leave, in accordance with the policies of the Company for the time being in force. At the commencement of your employment, your leave entitlement will be as set out in the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment"

7. Information Provided by You, Reference Checks, Background Check:

a. The information and documents submitted by you before the commencement of your employment (or subsequently) (including your resume, application forms, information specifically provided under clause 7(b), etc.)or at anytime thereafter form the basis of, as relevant, offering employment to you and continuation of your employment.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

10. Confidentiality:

a. You acknowledge that information of a confidential nature pertaining to the Company or any other Group Company may come into your possession or become otherwise known to you in the course of your employment.Such information may include (but is not limited to) trade secrets, know-how, business processes, product information, pricing, business strategy, customer lists, supplier terms and conditions, employment practices, employee particulars, etc. All such information is called Confidential Information.

Intellectual Property related Undertaking

By this undertaking (Undertaking), I agree, acknowledge and undertake as follows:

1. If at any time in the course of my employment with the Company, I make or discover or participate in the making or discovery of any Intellectual Property, I: i. Will promptly make full and complete disclosure aboutthe Intellectual Property to the Company; and ii. Hereby agree that all such Intellectual Property will be the absolute property of the Company and that I shall have no rights with respect to such Intellectual Property.The term 'Intellectual Property' means and includes inventions (whether patentable or not), copyrightable works, improvements, developments, discoveries, proprietary information, trade marks, logos, know how, processes, designs, utility models, mask work rights, rights in databases and moral rights and all works, whether present or arising in future (whether or not , patent, copyright or other similar protection has been applied for registration or granted registration) or forms of protection having equivalent effect anywhere inthe world. For the avoidance of doubt, this Undertaking does not limit my moral rights to the extent permitted by law.

2. I will do all things necessary, at the Company's request and expense (whether during or after the term of your employment) to ensure that all rights in the Intellectual Property vest in the Company including withoutlimitation: (a) execution of necessary documents and written confirmations; (b) execution of powers of attorney or letters of authority in favour of the Company or its nominees to make applications for registration of such Intellectual Property or enforcing the Company's rights in such Intellectual Property; (c) joining in any action to perfect or enforce the Company's rights in the Intellectual Property. I agree that the benefits of any proceeds from any action that the Company takes in relation to enforcing its rights in the Intellectual Property belong exclusively to the Company. I further agree that the Company's rights granted by me by this Undertaking will not be impaired by any non-use of the Intellectual Property vested in the Company.

3. I agree that payment of remuneration by the Company to me includes consideration for the rights granted by me under this Undertaking and that there are, in addition, no royalties or any other payments that are due orwill accrue to me in consideration of the rights granted by me under this Undertaking.

4. Where I have any moral rights under law with respect to any such Intellectual Property, I hereby waive anysuch rights to the fullest extent permitted by law from time to time. Even where law does not permit such waiver of moral rights, I hereby undertake not to exercise such moral rights in any manner that is inconsistent with the vesting of the Intellectual Property rights in the Company.

5. I will not do anything that is inconsistent with the rights granted by me under this Undertaking or otherwise take advantage of any legal possibility of staking a claim or right over any part of the rights in the Intellectual Property assigned to the Company under this Undertaking.

Such payment shall be subject to deductions of applicable taxes, and other levies, contributions, etc. as per the relevant laws and contractual terms as may be applicable and amended from time to time. Your remunerationincludes any amounts or components that law or regulation requires the Company to pay you as an employee(Statutory Payments). If the law revises the rates of any Statutory Payments or imposes an additional tax burden on the Company on the payment of any component of your Salary, the Company may revise the individual componentsof your remuneration such that the total amount of cost incurred by the Company on account of your remuneration continues to remain the same after revising the individual components.

c. The Company may at its sole discretion from time to time review your remuneration, normally once annually.Where the Company agrees to revise your remuneration, you will be notified of it in
d. writing. Until the Companynotifies you of a revision in your remuneration, the latest written communication to you giving details of your Salary shall apply. You agree that all such revisions shall be binding on you.

4. Probation:

a. Your appointment will be on probation for a period of six months (Probation Period). You will be advised in writing upon satisfactory completion of the Probation Period. If you receive no such communication, the Probation Periodwill be deemed to have been extended until the Company advises you in writing of confirmation in your appointmentor notifying you otherwise.

b. The Company may terminate your employment by a prior written notice of at least 1 month (or payment ofproportionate remuneration for any shortfall in the notice period) at any time during or at the end of the Probation Period without assigning any reason for such termination.

c. You may terminate your employment by giving the Company a prior written notice of at least 1 month at any time during the or at the end of the probation period.

5. Statutory Benefits:

a. Subject to clause above, you will be eligible to statutory benefits such as provident fund and gratuity, as detailedin the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment", and under the relevant policy in force as revised and amended from time to time.

6. Leave:

a. You will be entitled to leave, in accordance with the policies of the Company for the time being in force. At the commencement of your employment, your leave entitlement will be as set out in the Memorandum "Terms and Conditions of Employment"

7. Information Provided by You, Reference Checks, Background Check:

a. The information and documents submitted by you before the commencement of your employment (or subsequently) (including your resume, application forms, information specifically provided under clause 7(b), etc.)or at anytime thereafter form the basis of, as relevant, offering employment to you and continuation of your employment.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

10. Confidentiality:

a. a. The information and documents submitted by you before the commencement of your employment (or subsequently) (including your resume, application forms, information specifically provided under clause 7(b), etc.)or at anytime thereafter form the basis of, as relevant, offering employment to you and continuation of your employment.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

b. You have confirmed to the Company that you neither have any freelance, advisory, partner or any similar engagement contract with any third party nor have a business set-up that may give rise to a conflict with your employment or amounts to being in competition with Company's business, except your financial investment in a partnership firm (as a dormant partner) involved in real estate activities without your involvement in running the partnership firm. You shall promptly inform the Company if any such work or business is conflicting with your employment or competes with the Company's business. If, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, such work or business you undertake gives rise to a conflictor is in competition to the Company's business, the Company may terminate your employment without furthernotice.

c. The Company reserves the right to make such inquiries, background or reference checks (including criminal background checks) as it considers necessary. By accepting employment: (i) you agree to the conduct of suchchecks including by way of engaging third party agencies to conduct such checks; and (ii) you consent to your personal details to be used for conducting such background checks (including providing them to the third party agencies solely for this purpose).

d. The commencement or continuation of your employment with the Company is contingent upon a backgroundcheck and check of references satisfactory to the Company. Further, the Company shall have the right, and youhereby consent to such monitoring of your performance and your activities during the period of employment withthe Company as the Company deems fit.

e. You shall submit to the Thomson Reuters Human Resource team a pre-approved document list as detailed in Annexure II to this letter of appointment and bring the appropriate documents with you on your first day of work. Failure to present this identification may result in, as relevant, a delay in the commencement date of your employment or termination of your employment.

8. Code of Conduct:

a. The Company is part of the Thomson Reuters group of companies and upholds the shared values and standardsof ethics and conduct that apply generally across the Thomson Reuters group of companies. As an employee of a Thomson Reuters group company you shall uphold the Thomson Reuters Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any other codes that the Company may from time to time notify as applying to its employees, including any modifications, alterations, additions, deletions or replacement of any of them at its sole discretion (together, Codes; each a Code).

The Codes are integral to the Company and are an important source of guidance to the Company's employees as tothe standards of conduct expected of each of the Company's employees. While no document could possibly cover every question or circumstance with regard to your conduct and discipline as the Company's employee, the Codes provide guidance on some of the conduct issues that are critically important to us. Just as important, the Codes can help you identify when it's time to ask for guidance from your manager, a Thomson Reuters Human Resources business partner or a Thomson Reuters lawyer.

You may be asked for a written or signed acknowledgement for certain Codes. If so requested, please acknowledge that you have received access to and read those Codes and that you understand your obligations to comply with the Code. Regardless of whether you have provided such written or signed acceptance, you expressly agree that each of the Codes are binding on you and that it is important for you to comply with them at all times. If you have computer access, you will likely be able to submit your acknowledgement electronically. Information will be provided to you asto how to submit your electronic acknowledgement. If you do not have computer access, you should sign a copy ofthe acknowledgement form at the end of the Code and return it to your local Human Resources department.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 664C02BC-73AB-40A0-A3CA-819FBF8B364B

b. The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time if it does not receive your acknowledged, signed copy of any of the Codes. You acknowledge that non-compliance with any of the Codes may result in disciplinary action against you, including, where the Company considers necessary under the circumstances, termination of your employment.

9. Changes to the Terms and Conditions of Employment Applying to you:

a. You acknowledge that over a period of time, due to changes in the market conditions, business environment it willbe necessary for the Company to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) the terms and conditions of employment. The Company reserves the right to make changes or modifications to (or replacement of) any of the terms and conditions of your employment as the Company acting reasonably considers necessary in the context of changes in the business environment, market practices or other circumstances. Minor changes of detail (e.g. in procedures) may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

b. You will normally be given not less than 15 (fifteen) days written notice before any significant changes are madeto the terms and conditions of your employment and you hereby grant your express acceptance and readiness to comply Company rules, regulations and policies in existence together with any changes or modifications thereoffrom time to time.

4. Prior knowledge

Associate acknowledges that prior to his or her appointment by TCS, he or she had no knowledge of the Confidential Information of TCS and that such Confidential Information is of a confidential and secret character and is vital to the continued success of TCS's business. Associate further acknowledges that he or she is associated with TCS in a capacity in which he or she will become acquainted with all or part of such Confidential Information. In order to safeguard the legitimate interests of TCS in such Confidential Information, it is necessary for TCS to protect such Confidential Information by holding it secret and confidential.

5. Use of third party material

Associate expressly agrees that it shall not in the course of his or her association with TCS and while working on the premises or facilities of TCS or its Clients or in connection with the development of any intellectual property rights or work for or on behalf of TCS, use any third party material or intellectual property rights except those intellectual property rights provided by TCS or expressly authorised by TCS or without having proper authorisation or license or approval of the respective owner of such intellectual property rights.

6. Security policies and Guidelines.

Associate agrees to abide by and be bound by any and all policies, documents, guidelines and processes including IP, Security and Confidentiality of TCS in force from time to time whether expressly endorsed or not.

7. Working in SBWS Framework:

Associate may be required to work in TCS offices or its Client premises or from home (remote working) as per the directions of supervisor and / or the provisions of the applicable policy.

Associate understands that working in this hybrid environment may have higher confidentiality and information security risks. Associate acknowledges that when working remotely the Associate:

(a) will work only in a private, secured work area in compliance with the guidelines issued and amended from time to time.

(b) will comply with and work in a manner consistent with TCS Data Privacy and Security Policies/Protocols.

10. Equitable Rights

Associate acknowledges that any Confidential Information that comes into the possession and / or knowledge of Associate is of a unique, highly confidential and proprietary nature. It is further acknowledged by Associate that the disclosure, distribution, dissemination and / or release by Associate of the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of TCS or any breach of this Agreement by Associate will cause TCS to suffer severe, immediate and irreparable damage and that upon any such breach or any threat thereof, TCS shall without prejudice to any other remedies available to it, be entitled to appropriate equitable relief including the relief of specific performance and injunctive relief, in addition to whatever remedies it might have at law.

11. General

(a) The provisions hereof shall be interpreted, determined and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

(b) In the event of any dispute or disagreement over the interpretation of any of the terms herein contained or may claim or liability of any party including that of surety, the same shall be referred to a person to be nominated by TCS, whose decision shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto. Subject to the above, the arbitration shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1999 or any modifications or re-enactment thereof. Associate confirms that the fact that the arbitrator shall be a nominee of TCS shall not be a ground for objecting to such arbitration or challenging the decision of the arbitrator. The venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai. Subject to the above arbitration clause, the Parties agreed to the binding jurisdiction of the Courts at Mumbai under the laws of India.

(c) If any provision hereof shall be found by a judicial tribunal to be contrary to governing law, it shall be deemed null and void without annulling or rendering invalid the remainder of the Agreement and if the invalid portion is such that the remainder cannot be sustained without it, the Parties herein shall find a suitable replacement to the invalid portion that shall be legally valid.

(d) This Confidentiality clause along with other documents executed by Associate or referenced in any such documents constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining to the subject matter thereof. No delay of omission of either Party in exercising or enforcing any of their rights or remedies hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof.

Dear Dheeraj C,

Subject: Letter of intent

With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

ANNEXURE - III

We are pleased to highlight few of our key initiatives and policies for your ready reference.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

Employee Assistance Programme (EAP)

We care for you and your family's overall wellbeing and through the EAP, we bring to you an exclusive counselling service. This program is run in association with ICAS India, world leader in Wellness services to help you and your family maintain a healthy & balanced lifestyle.

Engagement Letter

We are pleased to appoint you in our organization as Assistant Store Manager Trainee subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Your term of engagement will commence from 15 Jul 2024 and expire on 14 Jul 2025 during which you will render services to our Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) premises at Bangalore specified from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter executed by you on 15 Jul 2024. Further you shall be bound by terms of this engagement letter and that you shall act in accordance with the instructions, rules or regulations received by you from TeamLease or any authorized person of TeamLease.

2. You hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

   i. You shall perform the services, in a professional manner, at the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) location until the expiry of the term or termination of your engagement.
   ii. During the term of your engagement, you shall render services exclusively to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or any of its group companies, subsidiaries or affiliates as instructed by TeamLease. Further you shall not engage either directly or indirectly in any trade, business or employment during the term of your engagement, whether for or without any commercial gain, in any manner whatsoever.
   iii. You shall not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or TeamLease.
   iv. You shall not receive any payments, gifts or gratuities of any nature either directly or indirectly from the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) unless agreed to by TeamLease except for any rewards or incentives based on your performance which shall be at the sole discretion of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).
   v. You shall extend all cooperation to Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) employees, consultants, representatives etc., and do all such things as may be necessary and comply with all terms of the engagement letter so as to effectively undertake the work.
   vi. Report and be present at the designated location during the working hours mentioned by the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) and abide by the rules and regulations as intimated by TeamLease.
   vii. Comply with the safety, health and other rules and regulations of TeamLease as intimated to you.
   viii. Comply with leave policy as intimated through the associate handbook ix. You shall not divulge any trade secret or confidential information which you come across during the term of your engagement or in course of services being provided to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).
   x. During your engagement, TeamLease reserves the right to transfer you to any location within the territory of India for executing the services to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited). Further TeamLease reserves the right to depute your services to the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) affiliates, group companies or subsidiaries at any location within the territory of India.

3. During the term of this engagement, the nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of a Contract of Service for a fixed period. By executing this letter of engagement neither TeamLease offers you any employment with TeamLease nor you become an employee of TeamLease. Upon expiry or termination of this engagement letter, your engagement with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

4. You shall not act in any act subversive of any discipline or insubordination of your duties or any misconduct including but not limited to theft, fraud or misrepresentation or any event such that of prolonged absenteeism, destruction or damage to the property of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited), then in such event, TeamLease shall be at liberty to take necessary disciplinary action against you and shall be at liberty to forthwith terminate this engagement.

5. In case TeamLease finds your services are not in conformity with the requisite service level standards, then TeamLease reserves the right to initiate a performance improvement plan and further in case you fail to perform as per the said requisite standards, despite being provided the performance improvement plan, then TeamLease reserves the right to terminate your services accordingly.

6. Either party may terminate this engagement by issuing 30 days notice in writing or payment of 30 days' basic salary in lieu of notice thereof. Teamlease reserves the right to waive the applicable notice period, at its discretion. Notwithstanding anything contained herein in case of any breach of the terms of this engagement letter, TeamLease shall be entitled to forthwith terminate your engagement.

7. Termination of this engagement shall not affect the obligations of the parties that have been incurred prior to such termination and TeamLease shall promptly settle all your dues after making the applicable deductions.

8. You agree to defend, indemnify and hold TeamLease or the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) harmless from any and all claims, damages, liability, attorneys fees and expenses on account of your failure to perform any of your obligations under this engagement letter or for misconduct or for violation of any law or for creation of any legal liability by you.

9. In the event of any dispute between you and TeamLease, the parties shall negotiate with each other and endevaour to amicably resolve the said dispute. In case of any failure to amicably resolve any dispute then the same shall be referred to a sole arbitrator appointed by TeamLease. The arbitration shall be conducted in English language, in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, at Bangalore, Karnataka, India. This Engagement Letter shall be governed by the laws of India.

10. Details of your salary breakup will be as per the Annexure attached herein. You hereby authorize TeamLease to make all salary payments required to be made to you by TeamLease including all reimbursements either by way of Cheque or by directly crediting the amounts to your bank account.

11. You will be entitled to an employer's contribution of Provident fund to the extent of 12% of your basic salary and applicable ESI contribution. You will also be covered by Medical and Accident Insurance and will be entitled to all other statutory benefits whichever is applicable during the contract period. It is hereby clarified that if you fail to submit the ESIC, PF, Gratuity nomination forms together with any other document as required under the applicable labour legislations, TeamLease shall not incur any liability with regards to any Claims under the said applicable labour legislations.

12. In addition to the terms contained herein, your relationship with TeamLease may be subject to such other additional terms and conditions as may be communicated to you from time to time in writing by TeamLease and you hereby agree to have read and clearly understood the terms of employment provided in the Service Rules, which is attached herein.

13. During your engagement with TeamLease, if we find any irregularity or insufficiency in the documents submitted by you or in case, we find any incorrect, inaccurate or any misleading information while conducting reference checks then this engagement letter stands cancelled/revoked.
14. The nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of contract of service from 15 Jul 2024 to 14 Jul 2025. Upon expiry or termination of the work Assignment, your employment with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

vi. As per the program structure, a WILP Scholar trainee will register and pursue 4 to 6 courses per semester over 7 semesters.

vii. You will be required to submit a project work / dissertation in your final semester (8^{th} semester of your program). This will enable you to advance your professional capabilities by applying concepts and techniques in projects.

viii. Each course has multiple evaluation components. This includes an assignment component, quiz, mid-semester examination and comprehension examination. All evaluation components are mandatory for securing a pass grade in a course as prescribed by the partnering institution.

ix. Contact classes are organized as per the handout and calendar prepared and shared by the University at the beginning of each semester. In the normal course, one session of 2 hours duration per course per contact class is organized.

x. You will be called upon to undergo studies during the hours and days as may be fixed by the Company from time to time. Normally, the study hours would be from 9:00am to 6:00pm

xi. The faculty will take attendance/circulate attendance sheets for every session. It is your responsibility to ensure that your attendances are recorded properly.

xii. WILP Scholar trainees are expected to be on time for every session. Punctuality is non-negotiable and the faculty reserves the right to deny entry and attendance to late comers.

xiii. Attending 75% of contact session is mandatory for each course to appear for examinations.

xiv. Not attending classes for reasons like medical/on the job training /late coming/personal problems and other similar reasons would be treated as absenteeism.

xv. Scholar trainees who fail to meet the minimum attendance criteria will not qualify for comprehension exams for any of the registered courses in that semester.

xvi. For any reason, you are not able to meet the minimum attendance criteria or not complete the mandatory assignments / quiz / examinations in any semester, you are required to repeat the same semester as and when the next batch is organized. In such cases, rules and regulations governing academic programs at that time would be applicable. In addition, additional semesters fees are to be borne by you as prescribed by the University.

xvii. At the end of each semester, the performance of each Scholar Trainee in a course, is specified as a letter grade which is obtained through a Relative Grading procedure xviii. Any Scholar trainee securing 3 or more cumulative fail grade at any point in time will be expelled from WILP Program.

xix. The 8th semester of study is fully devoted for dissertation / project work

xx. If a Scholar trainee’s CGPA is less than 5.5, the Scholar trainee will not be permitted to register for the dissertation. He/she has to re-appear for exams and secure a CGPA of 5.5 before taking up the dissertation. Also, a Scholar trainee with an E grade in any course will not be permitted to register for the Dissertation

xxi. Project / Dissertation work has to be carried out by each individual separately. Teamwork is not permitted.

xxii. The dissertation has to be completed strictly as per the guidelines that are outlined by collaborating institution.

xxiii. WILP Scholar trainees are expected to maintain decorum and discipline in line with Wipro's professional work culture and environment.

xxiv. In cases where a Scholar trainee deviates from the expected behaviour as prescribed by the WILP and partnering institution from time to time , strict action will be taken and the decision of the WILP Team / faculty /, University would be final and binding.

xxv. Breach of integrity will be dealt with sternly. Such Scholar trainees will be asked to discontinue their studies and also expelled from WILP program.

xxvi. On successful completion of the study, you will be eligible to receive the M-Tech degree from the collaborating University, in recognition of your successfully completing the course.

xxvii. All Scholar trainees of the WILP will be given testimonials at the end of the successful completion of the M-Tech degree program. The testimonial contains the timeline in the WILP and the kind of project works carried during this opportunity.

Mode of contact session, examination pattern and other academic program norms are subject to change based on the prevailing situation / University norms declared from time to time. Decision of the University would be final and binding.

8. Conflict of Interest:

i. During your enrolment period with the WILP, you will focus exclusively on the requirements of the program. In addition to your study and academic requirements, you are required to engage yourself exclusively in the work assigned by Wipro and shall not take up any independent or individual assignments (whether part time or full time, in an advisory capacity or otherwise) directly or indirectly without the express written consent of Head /

Manager of WILP Academy

ii. You shall ensure that you shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any activity or have any interest in, or perform any services for any person who is involved in activities, which are or shall be in conflict with the interests of Wipro.

iii. The Conflict of Interest Policy also refers to the need on your part, during your enrolment and for a period of one year from the cessation of your enrolment with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation) not to solicit, induce or encourage:

   a. Any student/scholar trainee of the WILP to abandon /withdraw their enrolment with the program or to accept enrolment and/or employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   b. Any employee of Wipro to terminate their employment with Wipro or to accept employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   c. Any customer or vendor of Wipro to move their existing business with Wipro to a third party or to terminate their business relationship with Wipro.

   d. Any existing employee and/or student of WILP to become associated with, or perform services of any type for any third party.

iv. In case of any conflict or doubt, please discuss the matter with Head / Manager of WILP, to understand Wipro's position on this and resolve the conflict.

9. Obligation and Responsibilities:

i. During the study period you will be governed by the WILP regulations and instructions as may be modified, from time to time, in relation to conduct, discipline and other matters.

ii. During your study as part of WILP, Company expects you to undergo study in the area in which you are placed, with a high standard of initiative and efficiency. This is critical and Company has zero tolerance towards any deviations.

iii. You would not be allowed to seek membership of any local or public body without the written approval from the Head / Manager of WILP.

iv. During the study period and thereafter, you would not be allowed to give out to anyone in writing or by word of mouth or otherwise, particulars or details of work - process, technical know-how, research carried out, security arrangements, or administrative and/or organizational matters of confidential or secret nature which you may come across during your academic study or become known to you by virtue of your undergoing study under WILP or otherwise.

v. You are bound by all regulations, instructions and policies of the WILP and Wipro. These are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to Scholar trainees from time to time and you will be bound to comply with the same.

vi. In consideration of the opportunities, trainings and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by WILP/Wipro and in the course of your association with WILP. This covenant shall endure during your association and beyond the cessation of your association with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

vii. In connection with your association with Wipro as part of the WILP and during the term of your association upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business or academic session hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

During the period of academic study, if you develop or conceptualize inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques and improvements (including without limitation computer software) solely or jointly with others in relation to the operation of the WILP / Wipro, such developments will be fully communicated to the WILP academy and will be the sole intellectual property of Wipro. You agree to cooperate in the execution of documents to facilitate the assignment of such intellectual property when required.

10. Confidentiality:

i. In consideration of the opportunities, training and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by Wipro and in the course of your enrolment. This covenant shall endure during your enrolment and beyond the cessation of your enrolment with Wipro (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

ii. During your training on projects at Wipro, you will be expected not to use or disclose any confidential information, including trade secrets, of any former employer (if any) or other person with whom you have an obligation of confidentiality and by signing below you affirm that you have no conflicting obligations or non-compete agreements that would prevent you from working without limitation for Wipro.

11. Assignment of Intellectual Property

In connection with your enrolment and during the term of your enrolment, upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

12. Posting

During the initial study period, initially you would be made familiar with Wipro, but you may if needed be re-assigned or transferred to another division, department, establishment or new location where Wipro, has its office or operation and WILP classes are running in the particular location, in India, without enhancing the scholarship amount. On placement of this nature, you will also be governed by the disciplinary rules and regulations as applicable in that unit/branch. You may also be placed in any sister company of Wipro, for practical studies.

13. Misconduct:

i. In case you are charged with any misconduct or disciplinary issue during your study period, your enrolment with WILP may be temporarily placed on suspension without payment of scholarship amount, for such period as Wipro may deem fit. If the charges against you are proved to be true, your enrolment may be immediately cancelled , without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu of notice not withstanding any clause of this letter of enrolment. It is clarified that this clause is without prejudice to Wipro’s rights to enforce the Training Agreement duly signed by you even after cancellation of your enrolment for whatever reasons as the case may be.

ii. Notwithstanding the condition regarding written notice of termination and without prejudice to Wipro’s right to enforce the Training agreement, Wipro shall have the right to terminate your academic study without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu thereof, if any declaration given or information furnished by you to WILP/ Wipro is found to be false or if you are found to have willfully suppressed any material information.

Please note that at any stage, whether during your selection process or upon enrolment with the WILP, if it is brought to our notice that you have indulged in malpractices or used illegal means to clear your online assessment, Wipro shall withdraw or revoke the enrolment and cancel the same with immediate effect and we reserve our rights to take suitable action against you as we may deem fit.

14. Cancellation of Enrolment:

15. Study Hours:

i. As a Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program, you will be called upon to undergo studies during the hours and days as may be fixed by WILP from time to time as per the University requirements.

ii. You would be assigned to any of the locations and any project work as part of your WILP as may be decided by the Company.

iii. The full day lecture sessions will be held at any of Wipro’s other establishments/outsourced venue. You may also be called upon to attend academic study as and when required on holidays, as may be scheduled in accordance with the convenience of the organizing team of the WILP.

iv. The university will plan contact classes in multiple format to suit the project work situations and university guidelines such as contact classes in ILT (instructor Led training) and / or VILT (virtual Instructor Led Training and Self-Directed / Recorded lecture sessions.

16. General:

i. This letter of enrolment is subject to the condition that you have not provided us with any false declaration or wilfully suppressed any material information. If you have, you will be liable for cancellation of enrolment from the WILP without any prior notice.

ii. The terms of this letter of enrolment may be specifically enforced legally, if required. In this connection, if any of the provisions of this letter are declared or found to be void or unenforceable due to any reason whatsoever, the remaining provisions of this letter shall continue in full force and effect.

iii. These enrolment terms supersede and replace any existing agreement or understanding, if any, between Wipro and you relating to the same subject matter.

iv. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from enrolling under this agreement. In the event that you are not a citizen of the country of posting, you should have a valid work permit to work in the country of posting.

v. During the period of enrolment you are required to comply with all policies of WILP and Wipro. These policies are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to the Scholar Trainees from time to time. You agree to comply with all policies as modified from time to time.

17. On Completion/Cancellation of Academic Program:

i. On Completion of the academic program or cancellation of your enrolment , as the case may be, you will immediately surrender to Wipro/ the Academy all specifications, formulae, documents, literature, drawings or records, etc. belonging to Wipro/ the Academy or relating to its business and shall not make or retain any copies of these items.

ii. You are not eligible to receive testimonial certificate if you do not successfully complete the academic study in accordance with this letter of enrolment and the study scheme formulated by the Academy.

iii. Wipro reserves the right to offer employment at its sole discretion to a Scholar trainee on successful and satisfactory completion of the academic study.

18. Acceptance of Enrolment Letter:

Upon accepting the above terms and conditions, you are required to return the duplicate of this letter of enrolment, duly signed by you as a token of your acceptance on the day of joining WILP program.

Please confirm that the above terms are acceptable to you and that you accept the enrolment by signing a copy of this letter of enrolment and submit the same on the date of joining.

19. Work Allocation:

As part of your work responsibilities, you may be assigned to work on certain projects/accounts or other assignments as may be deemed fit by the Company in its sole discretion. Refusal to accept and deliver on such assignments shall be treated as a refusal to work and may result in termination of your employment or other disciplinary action.

Yours sincerely,

ANNEXURE – III

INITIAL INDUCTION PROGRAM

The Talent Transformation team at Wipro groom's campus selects to help them face the challenges of the corporate world.

A holistic 360 degree approach to training is adopted and helps them hone their fundamental computer skills followed by insights into Wipro businesses, process, technology and behavioural skills.

To understand and appreciate the mindset of the young Trainees and ensure that the transformation is smooth, the induction program is done by a team of dedicated professionals who have exposure to the academic and corporate sectors alike. Project Readiness Program (PRP) is a training program designed to address the basic learning needs of the Trainees.

Corporate Readiness Program - CRP

The CRP program is focused on making young Trainees comfortable in a corporate environment. This program starts with a corporate induction.

"EMERGE" a behavioural skills building training program ensures that the fresh Trainee start feeling at ease in the "corporate world". This activity based behavioural intervention informs the new entrants about the corporate work culture and business etiquette.

Technology Readiness Program - TRP

The technology training provides critical technical skills required to work on projects allocated to Trainees and prepare to face the demands of the project world. We begin doing this by familiarizing with Wipro's businesses and work environment.

The methodology of training is "Project Based Learning" (PBL) approach, the entire learning is designed around a series of projects that the recruits are expected to complete individually by learning and applying various topics required to complete the project. Starting with individual projects, the PBL approach ends with recruits working on a team project.

ANNEXURE – IV

I have read and understood the terms of my enrolment letter. I agree and acknowledge that I am a Student/Scholar trainee with Wipro's WILP. I further undertake that I shall not represent to any person within Wipro or any other third party that I am an employee of Wipro Ltd and I fully understand that such false representation shall entail severe disciplinary action including immediate cancellation of my enrolment.

RETIRALS

Provident Fund
You will be a member of the Provident Fund as per the provisions of "The Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952", and TCSL will contribute 12% of your basic salary every month as per the provisions of the said Act.

Gratuity
You will be entitled to gratuity as per the provisions of the Gratuity Act, 1972.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Aggregate Percentage Requirements
   Your appointment will be subject to your scoring minimum aggregate (aggregate of all subjects in all semesters) marks of 60% or above (or equivalent CGPA as per the conversion formula prescribed by the Board / University) in the first attempt in each of your Standard Xth, Standard XIIth, Diploma (if applicable) and highest qualification (Graduation/ Post Graduation as applicable) which includes successful completion of your final semester/year without any pending arrears/backlogs. As per the TCSL eligibility criteria, marks/CGPA obtained during the normal duration of the course only will be considered to decide on the eligibility.

   As communicated to you through various forums during the recruitment process, your appointment is subject to completion of your course within the stipulated time as specified by your University/Institute and as per TCSL selection guidelines.

   It is mandatory to declare the gaps/arrears/backlogs, if any, during your academics and work experience. The management reserves the right to withdraw/revoke the offer/appointment at any time at its sole discretion in case any discrepancy or false information is found in the details submitted by you.

2. Pre requisites for Joining
   To enable your readiness to work on assignments upon joining, we have put together a comprehensive learning program named TCS Xplore which is made available to you digitally. This foundation program will include Online learning content, Webinars, practice sessions & proctored assessments. Further to accepting this Offer letter, you are required to enroll for the TCS Xplore Program and start your learning journey with TCSL. TCSL will make Xplore program available for you upon your offer acceptance. Please note that your joining is subject to successful completion of your TCS Xplore program including the proctored assessment. We encourage you to complete your pre-learning, through TCS Xplore, well before your expected date of joining to avoid delays in onboarding.

10. Equitable Rights

Associate acknowledges that any Confidential Information that comes into the possession and / or knowledge of Associate is of a unique, highly confidential and proprietary nature. It is further acknowledged by Associate that the disclosure, distribution, dissemination and / or release by Associate of the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of TCS or any breach of this Agreement by Associate will cause TCS to suffer severe, immediate and irreparable damage and that upon any such breach or any threat thereof, TCS shall without prejudice to any other remedies available to it, be entitled to appropriate equitable relief including the relief of specific performance and injunctive relief, in addition to whatever remedies it might have at law.

11. General

(a) The provisions hereof shall be interpreted, determined and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

(b) In the event of any dispute or disagreement over the interpretation of any of the terms herein contained or may claim or liability of any party including that of surety, the same shall be referred to a person to be nominated by TCS, whose decision shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto. Subject to the above, the arbitration shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1999 or any modifications or re-enactment thereof. Associate confirms that the fact that the arbitrator shall be a nominee of TCS shall not be a ground for objecting to such arbitration or challenging the decision of the arbitrator. The venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai. Subject to the above arbitration clause, the Parties agreed to the binding jurisdiction of the Courts at Mumbai under the laws of India.

(c) If any provision hereof shall be found by a judicial tribunal to be contrary to governing law, it shall be deemed null and void without annulling or rendering invalid the remainder of the Agreement and if the invalid portion is such that the remainder cannot be sustained without it, the Parties herein shall find a suitable replacement to the invalid portion that shall be legally valid.

(d) This Confidentiality clause along with other documents executed by Associate or referenced in any such documents constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining to the subject matter thereof. No delay of omission of either Party in exercising or enforcing any of their rights or remedies hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).

3.7 The Employee shall place all of his work capacity at the Company's disposal. The Company shall be informed in writing of any secondary employment. Secondary employment which affects the work assignments of the Employee and the legitimate commercial interests of the Company may only be exercised after consent has been given. During the term of this employment contract the Employee may not conclude any business transactions on his own behalf or on account of a third party.

3.8 Unless prevented by sickness or disability, the Employee shall devote all of his time, attention, knowledge, energy and skills during normal working hours and at such other times as the Employee's duties and responsibilities may require. The working hours are however to be placed in accordance with Company, client and project requirements. The Employee understands that as the Company works with strong global interactions, there will be a need for meetings, conference calls at different timings and days including holidays.

3.9 The Employee is obligated to participate in the improvement and reduction in price of work procedures and distribution procedures.

4 WORKING HOURS

4.1 The Employee will place his entire effort, knowledge, and skill in the service of the Company. She shall work a minimum of 40 (forty) hours on five days per week. She is obliged, however, to be available for the Company at any time, as far as the concerns of the Company require, and to attend to its interests without any entitlement to overtime pay or other compensation.

4.2 [The Employee is obligated to be available to be on-call or on-standby. The frequency and scope of being oncall / on-standby shall be determined by the department.]

4.3 Daily starting and finishing times and breaks shall comply with the respective company operational arrangements. The Company is entitled to make changes to this.

5 REMUNERATION

5.1 The Employee shall receive an annual salary in the amount of INR 800000.00 gross. The remuneration is to be paid in Indian Rupees in twelve (12) equal parts.

5.2 Payment shall be made on the last day of the month by bank transfer to a bank account of the Employee, details of which shall be given within one (1) week of the conclusion of the contract.

5.3 The remunerations paid to the Employee shall be subject to usual statutory and other deductions, including tax and any other contributions normally required to be withheld by an Employer under applicable laws in India.

5.4 The Employee shall be solely responsible for paying any taxes direct or indirect, State or local and other obligations and the filing of any required returns or other information relating hereto.

5.5 The Employee is obligated to keep the amount of his payments confidential.

6 ACCEPTING THIRD-PARTY BENEFITS

The Company is committed to ensuring all business relationships with suppliers and clients are legal and based on professional integrity. The Employee shall strictly adhere to Company's business conduct and Integrity policy and refrain from accepting gifts from Vendors / Suppliers / Customers / Other agencies at all times. The Employee is obligated to immediately inform the Company of any such attempts made towards him.

7 OVERTIME/OVERTIME PAY

The Employee is permitted trust-based working hours. In return any overtime worked is compensated in full by salary without any additional entitlement to overtime pay or other compensation.

8 INABILITY TO ATTENT TO WORK

8.1 Any inability to carry out duties shall be reported to the Country Manager or direct supervisor immediately, as well as the duration and the reason. This must be done between 8:00 a.m. at the earliest and 9:00 a.m. at the latest (sick report).

8.2 On the last day of absence from work the Country Manager or direct supervisor shall be informed about when the employee will resume his/her work by phone. This must be done by 4:00 p.m. at the latest (recovery report).

8.3 If the Employee is ill for longer than two (2) days, a doctor's note regarding his inability to attend work and the expected duration shall be provided not later than on the third (3) day after the commencement of the inability to work. A new doctor's note shall be submitted on the next working day after the expiry of the expected duration of the inability to attend work as stated in the doctor's note.

8.4 If the Employee repeatedly and, despite warnings, fails to inform the Company of his illness and / or fails to present the Company with a doctor's note, the Company is entitled to terminate the employment contract without adhering to a notice period.

9 CONTINUED REMUNERATION WHEN UNABLE TO ATTEND WORK

9.1 If the Employee is not able to attend work due to illness, he shall be entitled to a maximum of twelve (12) days per annum of paid sick leave.

9.2 Accrued sick leave can't be carried over to the next calendar year.

9.3 Paid sick leave may not be used to extend a holiday or vacation and once an employee has given notice to quit. Sick leave will not be paid out upon the termination.

9.4 If the Employee has the right to claim damages from a third party regarding loss of earnings which he is entitled to because he is unable to attend work, he hereby assigns this right to the Company if his salary continues to be paid while he is unable to attend work.

9.5 In accordance with the agreed regulations above, the Employee shall, in particular, immediately provide the Company with all information necessary to enforce their claim for damages.

9.6 The Employee is further advised that the Company is entitled to refuse to continue to pay his remuneration if the Employee has not satisfied his obligations arising from section 8 and 9 of this contract.

9.7 The Employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of not availed sick leave at any time.

10 ANNUAL LEAVE

10.1 The Employee shall receive 18 (eighteen) working days of annual/privileged leave with full pay per calendar year. If the employment contract is not in force for a whole year, the Employee shall receive 1/12 of his annual leave entitlement for each completed calendar month.

10.2 The Company must approve when annual leave is taken. The Employee must request annual leave in good time. Annual leave must be discussed with the Head of Department and must abide by the valid arrangements regarding absence cover in the respective area. Disrupting normal business operations is to be avoided at all costs.

10.3 Annual leave must be taken in the current leave year. The leave year begins on January 01st and ends on December 31st. Carrying annual leave over to the next calendar year is only permitted with the consent of the Company. In the event annual leave is carried over, it must be taken by March 31st of the following year at the latest.

Exceptions to this require special management approval.

10.4 Upon termination of the Employment (however occasioned) the Employee shall be paid in lieu of any accrued and not availed annual leave to which the Employee becomes entitled during the Employment. Payment for accrued annual leave shall be calculated on the basis of the rate of the Basic Salary. The Annual term shall be calculated exclusive of public holidays.

10.5 The Employee is entitled to 7 days of Public Holidays, which are defined as per Company policy. The Company is entitled to change these Public Holidays due to operational reasons at any time.

10.6 The Employee shall be entitled to 2 (two) days paid casual leave per calendar year. This leave is available to use as it is accrued. Accrued leave can't be carried over to the next calendar year.

10.7 Any leave is subject to approval by the Company and shall be in accordance with the relevant regulations regarding temporary replacements. Interruption of business operations has to be avoided.

11 TERMINATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

11.1 As stated in section 1 this employment contract is for a fixed term until 03.10.2022 and shall end on that date without notice having to be given.

11.2 On completion of the probation period, either initial, or extended, as the case may be, the Employment of the Employee with the Company will end as defined under clause 1.

11.3 Either party can terminate this Agreement with a written notice of two (2) months or two (2) months' salary in lieu of notice. The official notification becomes valid upon arrival of delivery.

11.4 In any case of notice, the Company is entitled to release the Employee from work under deduction of any vacation time remaining due up to the expiration of the period of notice.

11.5 The right to terminate the Contract extraordinarily remains unaffected. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Company shall be entitled to terminate the Contract summarily by written notice and without any payment in lieu of notice (but without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the Company for any breach of this Contract of Employment and to the Employee's continuing obligations) in any of the following events:

(a) If the Employee commits any serious or wilful or persistent breach or breaches of any express or implied term of this Contract.

(b) If the Employee commits any serious or wilful or persistent breach or breaches of any express or implied Company policy.

(c) If the Company has good reason to believe that the Employee has committed any criminal offence or been guilty of any dishonesty or serious misconduct whether during the performance of his duties or otherwise.

(d) If the Employee's petitions for bankruptcy or has a bankruptcy order made against him or applies to take the benefit of any legislation for the relief of insolvent debtors or if he makes any composition with his creditors.

(e) If any information relating to the Employee's suitability for Employment by the Company and provided in the course of applying for Employment is found to be materially false or misleading.

11.6 A notice by the Employee may be submitted to the Supervisor/Director / Managing Director of the Company.

11.7 It is not permitted to terminate the employment contract giving proper notice before the agreed start date.

11.8 Upon cessation of this employment contract or in the event that the Company has granted leave from duty, the Employee must immediately and completely release to the Company all documents, objects and data regarding the affairs of the Company, especially keys, badges, telephones, computers, books, models, and recordings of any type including any duplicates for copies in his possession. The Employee acknowledges that all objects and data are the property of the Company and therefore he has no right to retention. If the Company property is not returned, a fee of INR 3,500.00 (three thousand five hundred) shall be deducted from the salary of the Employee.

11.9 The employment contract shall cease automatically without notice of termination upon expiry of the month in which the Employee reaches the age of 65 or when a total loss of working capacity is ascertained.

12 CONFIDENTIALTY

12.1 The Employee is obligated to keep all confidential matters, in particular business and trade secrets of the Company, and companies and persons affiliated with the Company strictly confidential. This obligation shall also continue to persist after the cessation of the employment contract.

12.2 All documents relating to the Company or to companies and persons affiliated with the Company, in particular all notes, specifications for tenders and contracts, records, reports, correspondence and similar documents including any copies thereof, all data carriers/data and all items provided to the Employee shall be handled with care and may only be used for business purposes. Removing these items from the business premises or a reproduction of the data/items is prohibited.

12.3 When the employment contract ends or upon commencement of a leave of absence when notice to terminate the employment contract has been given the Employee shall return to the Company unprompted all documents, data carriers and items in his possession which were provided to him during his employment. During the period of the employment contract this is to be done if ordered to do so. This applies correspondingly to non-physical information and materials, such as computer programs and other data, for example. The Employee is not permitted to retain back-ups of these.

12.4 The Employee is obligated to keep individual arrangements in or regarding this contract of employment confidential towards third parties. This includes in particular salary and, in case of fixed term contracts, the duration.

13 REPORTING CHANGES

Changes to marital status, place of residence and matters which could cause special statutory privileges, e.g. severe disablement and other matters which are important to the Company, shall be reported to the Company immediately.

14 CODE OF CONDUCT

14.1 The Employee shall strictly adhere to the Company's code of conduct and all the disciplinary rules and regulations as in force from time to time.

14.2 The Employee shall refrain from engaging in any illegal or immoral activities within Company premises as well outside which can bring disrepute to the Company.

14.3 The Employee shall not use Company's assets and facilities for their private use without prior information and approval from his supervisor. The Employee shall refrain from doing his personal work / private business during the office working hours.

14.4 Whilst the Company encourages the use of email and the internet to aid communication and improve efficiency, inappropriate use of these systems can cause serious problems which may involve legal claims against both the Company and individual Employee. In line with the Hemmersbach Group, therefore the Employee agrees to abide by the rules of the Company Policy.

15 USE OF EQUIPMENT

The Employee undertakes to comply with the rules of the Company in force from time to time concerning the use of materials, equipment and computer systems of the Company and the Group Companies. The Employee gives his consent to a representative of the Company gaining access to the email of the Employee in case of absence or in order to protect the interest of the Company.

16 DATA PROTECTION

Any data arising due to and during the employment will be stored and processed in the headquarters of the Hemmersbach Group, based in Nuremberg, Germany. Both parties shall therefore adhere to the statutory stipulations of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) under European law, while considering the local data protection requirements. The Employee gives his consent to the Company and the Hemmersbach Group of Companies processing and transferring work related data (including data relating to sickness affecting the performance of the Employee) within India and abroad as the case may be for purposes related to the Employment, other administrative purposes or any other purpose related to the collection, storage or transfer of personal data in compliance with applicable Indian law.

17 BACKGROUND CHECK

17.1 The Employee agrees to provide the Company with an official document issued by the police or a governmental agency (e.g. criminal record / certificate of good conduct) in order to testify any criminal records as part of a background check. This certificate or at least the confirmation of the request should be presented to the Company at the latest on the first working day.

17.2 The Employee agrees to undergo further background checks (e.g. advanced security vetting), if these are or will be required for the role.

18 WRITTEN FORM AND EXISTENCE OF THE CONTRACT

18.1 Ancillary agreements and amendments are only valid, if they are in writing, signed and have approval by decision of the Shareholders' meeting; this also applies to the waiver of this written form requirement.

18.2 If one of the provisions of this contract is or becomes invalid, in whole or in part, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. In such a case the contract shall be executed as the Parties intended. If the validity of a provision of performance or time is affected, it shall be replaced by the provision permitted by law.

19 JURISDICTION

The terms of this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of India and both parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Bangalore to settle any disputes that may arise in connection with this Employment.

20 COPIES OF THIS CONTRACT

The Company and the Employee have each received one copy of this contract.

21 MISCELLANEOUS

21.1 The Employee is not permitted to use the Company's Internet or telephone for private purposes Likewise sending private emails is prohibited.

21.2 Working or driving a company car under the influence of alcohol or drugs is strictly prohibited.

21.3 The company shall be informed in writing of the loss of your driving licence including information regarding the duration of and reason for said loss. If a driving licence is required to carry out his role the Company reserves the right to terminate the employment contract without notice.

21.4 The Company is entitled to save all use of the email system and the Internet in order to monitor adherence to the above provisions using the saved data for a maximum duration of three months.

The undersigned hereby acknowledge that they have read and fully understand the terms of this Agreement, the terms and conditions of which are hereby incorporated and acknowledged by this document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first below written.

(*) You shall be responsible for payment of all statutory contributions, taxes, dues and levies as may be required under the relevant laws including contributions under Employees' State Insurance Corporation Act (at 0.75% of your Scholarship) as and when applicable to you. Such contributions, taxes, dues and levies where required, shall be deducted from your Scholarship and benefits according to applicable laws and regulations.

Your fourth-year scholarship will continue until completion of your M-Tech program. Your enrolment into the MTech academic program within 12 months from date of joining.

You shall be eligible to receive a onetime "joining bonus" of Rs.75,000 after you join Wipro along with your first month salary. All applicable taxes on the payment of this amount will be borne by you. Please note in the event you leave the organization within 12 months from the date of joining, payment processed under Joining bonus shall be recovered from the employee at the time of exit.

The enhancement of the scholarship at the end of each academic year of study will be at the discretion of the Company and subject to your satisfactory progress of study, acquisition of skills, behavior, regularity and punctuality in attendance. Your continued enrolment in the course, will be at the discretion of the Company, and is subject to satisfactory academic performance and other requirements as prescribed in the WILP portal.

In case your project performance at any stage is not found to be at par with the requirement of WILP, then you would be placed on performance improvement program (PIP). If you fail to successfully complete the PIP, the Company may at its sole discretion discontinue your enrolment in the WILP program.

Book Allowance:

A Book Allowance of Rs.1,250/- will be provided to you per semester. This allowance will be given every semester except the last semester when you will be engaged in dissertation. The allowance will be paid to you centrally along with your scholarship during the course of each semester. The allowance will be subject to tax. Book allowance is applicable and paid only when you are registered for the semester.

5. Training Agreement:

i. This letter of enrolment is subject to the execution of a training agreement in the prescribed proforma with Wipro Limited, Sarjapur Road, Doddakannelli, Bengaluru-560035 on or before joining the program (“Training Agreement”).

ii. This Training agreement shall be for a total period of 60 Months where you will be mentored for developing your skills and knowledge. This included technical training, in various formats, both online and offline and practical experience in various projects. The Company invests on your behalf for the cost of these trainings. Should you discontinue the WILP program or your enrolment with WILP is cancelled for any reason whatsoever before the completion of 60 months from the date of joining, the training expenses of Rs.75,000/-(Rupees Seventy five thousand only) will have to be paid by you as detailed in the Training Agreement.

6. PROJECT READINESS PROGRAM (PRP)

Upon enrolment, you will have to undergo a Project Readiness Program (PRP) to prepare you to participate in projects. This is offered by Wipro’s - Talent Transformation Department to all campus and off-campus selects. The broad objective of PRP is to equip you with the necessary knowledge and skills that will enable you to start working on real-life project work which is an integral part of the WILP.

7. Regulations of Academic study:

i. You will be enrolled for M-Tech program with a renowned institution (“University”) that collaborates with Wipro for WILP.

ii. Course specialization includes but is not limited to Software Systems, Software Engineering, Information Technology, Computing Systems and Infrastructure Management, Data Analytics, IoT, Cloud, Digital & Cyber security, Embedded Systems.

iii. Your specialization and enrolment would be decided based on prevailing business requirements and decision of the Company is final and binding.

iv. You will not be able to change Specialization track after enrolment.

v. Overall program duration is 4 years from date of enrolment of academic program.

vi. As per the program structure, a WILP Scholar trainee will register and pursue 4 to 6 courses per semester over 7 semesters.

vii. You will be required to submit a project work / dissertation in your final semester (8^{th} semester of your program). This will enable you to advance your professional capabilities by applying concepts and techniques in projects.

viii. Each course has multiple evaluation components. This includes an assignment component, quiz, mid-semester examination and comprehension examination. All evaluation components are mandatory for securing a pass grade in a course as prescribed by the partnering institution.

ix. Contact classes are organized as per the handout and calendar prepared and shared by the University at the beginning of each semester. In the normal course, one session of 2 hours duration per course per contact class is organized.

x. You will be called upon to undergo studies during the hours and days as may be fixed by the Company from time to time. Normally, the study hours would be from 9:00am to 6:00pm

xi. The faculty will take attendance/circulate attendance sheets for every session. It is your responsibility to ensure that your attendances are recorded properly.

xii. WILP Scholar trainees are expected to be on time for every session. Punctuality is non-negotiable and the faculty reserves the right to deny entry and attendance to late comers.

xiii. Attending 75% of contact session is mandatory for each course to appear for examinations.

xiv. Not attending classes for reasons like medical/on the job training /late coming/personal problems and other similar reasons would be treated as absenteeism.

xv. Scholar trainees who fail to meet the minimum attendance criteria will not qualify for comprehension exams for any of the registered courses in that semester.

xvi. For any reason, you are not able to meet the minimum attendance criteria or not complete the mandatory assignments / quiz / examinations in any semester, you are required to repeat the same semester as and when the next batch is organized. In such cases, rules and regulations governing academic programs at that time would be applicable. In addition, additional semesters fees are to be borne by you as prescribed by the University.

xvii. At the end of each semester, the performance of each Scholar Trainee in a course, is specified as a letter grade which is obtained through a Relative Grading procedure xviii. Any Scholar trainee securing 3 or more cumulative fail grade at any point in time will be expelled from WILP Program.

xix. The 8th semester of study is fully devoted for dissertation / project work

xx. If a Scholar trainee’s CGPA is less than 5.5, the Scholar trainee will not be permitted to register for the dissertation. He/she has to re-appear for exams and secure a CGPA of 5.5 before taking up the dissertation. Also, a Scholar trainee with an E grade in any course will not be permitted to register for the Dissertation

xxi. Project / Dissertation work has to be carried out by each individual separately. Teamwork is not permitted.

xxii. The dissertation has to be completed strictly as per the guidelines that are outlined by collaborating institution.

xxiii. WILP Scholar trainees are expected to maintain decorum and discipline in line with Wipro's professional work culture and environment.

xxiv. In cases where a Scholar trainee deviates from the expected behaviour as prescribed by the WILP and partnering institution from time to time , strict action will be taken and the decision of the WILP Team / faculty /, University would be final and binding.

xxv. Breach of integrity will be dealt with sternly. Such Scholar trainees will be asked to discontinue their studies and also expelled from WILP program.

xxvi. On successful completion of the study, you will be eligible to receive the M-Tech degree from the collaborating University, in recognition of your successfully completing the course.

xxvii. All Scholar trainees of the WILP will be given testimonials at the end of the successful completion of the M-Tech degree program. The testimonial contains the timeline in the WILP and the kind of project works carried during this opportunity.

Mode of contact session, examination pattern and other academic program norms are subject to change based on the prevailing situation / University norms declared from time to time. Decision of the University would be final and binding.

8. Conflict of Interest:

i. During your enrolment period with the WILP, you will focus exclusively on the requirements of the program. In addition to your study and academic requirements, you are required to engage yourself exclusively in the work assigned by Wipro and shall not take up any independent or individual assignments (whether part time or full time, in an advisory capacity or otherwise) directly or indirectly without the express written consent of Head /

Manager of WILP Academy

ii. You shall ensure that you shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any activity or have any interest in, or perform any services for any person who is involved in activities, which are or shall be in conflict with the interests of Wipro.

iii. The Conflict of Interest Policy also refers to the need on your part, during your enrolment and for a period of one year from the cessation of your enrolment with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation) not to solicit, induce or encourage:

   a. Any student/scholar trainee of the WILP to abandon /withdraw their enrolment with the program or to accept enrolment and/or employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   b. Any employee of Wipro to terminate their employment with Wipro or to accept employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   c. Any customer or vendor of Wipro to move their existing business with Wipro to a third party or to terminate their business relationship with Wipro.

   d. Any existing employee and/or student of WILP to become associated with, or perform services of any type for any third party.

iv. In case of any conflict or doubt, please discuss the matter with Head / Manager of WILP, to understand Wipro's position on this and resolve the conflict.

9. Obligation and Responsibilities:

i. During the study period you will be governed by the WILP regulations and instructions as may be modified, from time to time, in relation to conduct, discipline and other matters.

ii. During your study as part of WILP, Company expects you to undergo study in the area in which you are placed, with a high standard of initiative and efficiency. This is critical and Company has zero tolerance towards any deviations.

iii. You would not be allowed to seek membership of any local or public body without the written approval from the Head / Manager of WILP.

iv. During the study period and thereafter, you would not be allowed to give out to anyone in writing or by word of mouth or otherwise, particulars or details of work - process, technical know-how, research carried out, security arrangements, or administrative and/or organizational matters of confidential or secret nature which you may come across during your academic study or become known to you by virtue of your undergoing study under WILP or otherwise.

v. You are bound by all regulations, instructions and policies of the WILP and Wipro. These are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to Scholar trainees from time to time and you will be bound to comply with the same.

vi. In consideration of the opportunities, trainings and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by WILP/Wipro and in the course of your association with WILP. This covenant shall endure during your association and beyond the cessation of your association with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

vii. In connection with your association with Wipro as part of the WILP and during the term of your association upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business or academic session hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

During the period of academic study, if you develop or conceptualize inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques and improvements (including without limitation computer software) solely or jointly with others in relation to the operation of the WILP / Wipro, such developments will be fully communicated to the WILP academy and will be the sole intellectual property of Wipro. You agree to cooperate in the execution of documents to facilitate the assignment of such intellectual property when required.

10. Confidentiality:

i. In consideration of the opportunities, training and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by Wipro and in the course of your enrolment. This covenant shall endure during your enrolment and beyond the cessation of your enrolment with Wipro (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

ii. During your training on projects at Wipro, you will be expected not to use or disclose any confidential information, including trade secrets, of any former employer (if any) or other person with whom you have an obligation of confidentiality and by signing below you affirm that you have no conflicting obligations or non-compete agreements that would prevent you from working without limitation for Wipro.

11. Assignment of Intellectual Property

In connection with your enrolment and during the term of your enrolment, upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

12. Posting

During the initial study period, initially you would be made familiar with Wipro, but you may if needed be re-assigned or transferred to another division, department, establishment or new location where Wipro, has its office or operation and WILP classes are running in the particular location, in India, without enhancing the scholarship amount. On placement of this nature, you will also be governed by the disciplinary rules and regulations as applicable in that unit/branch. You may also be placed in any sister company of Wipro, for practical studies.

13. Misconduct:

i. In case you are charged with any misconduct or disciplinary issue during your study period, your enrolment with WILP may be temporarily placed on suspension without payment of scholarship amount, for such period as Wipro may deem fit. If the charges against you are proved to be true, your enrolment may be immediately cancelled , without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu of notice not withstanding any clause of this letter of enrolment. It is clarified that this clause is without prejudice to Wipro’s rights to enforce the Training Agreement duly signed by you even after cancellation of your enrolment for whatever reasons as the case may be.

ii. Notwithstanding the condition regarding written notice of termination and without prejudice to Wipro’s right to enforce the Training agreement, Wipro shall have the right to terminate your academic study without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu thereof, if any declaration given or information furnished by you to WILP/ Wipro is found to be false or if you are found to have willfully suppressed any material information.

Please note that at any stage, whether during your selection process or upon enrolment with the WILP, if it is brought to our notice that you have indulged in malpractices or used illegal means to clear your online assessment, Wipro shall withdraw or revoke the enrolment and cancel the same with immediate effect and we reserve our rights to take suitable action against you as we may deem fit.

14. Cancellation of Enrolment:

Notwithstanding any of the clauses of this letter of enrolment, Company reserves the right at its sole discretion to cancel this enrolment during the study period without assigning any reason, by giving one months' (30 days) notice or one month's scholarship/stipend in lieu of notice.

15. Study Hours:

i. As a Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program, you will be called upon to undergo studies during the hours and days as may be fixed by WILP from time to time as per the University requirements.

ii. You would be assigned to any of the locations and any project work as part of your WILP as may be decided by the Company.

iii. The full day lecture sessions will be held at any of Wipro’s other establishments/outsourced venue. You may also be called upon to attend academic study as and when required on holidays, as may be scheduled in accordance with the convenience of the organizing team of the WILP.

iv. The university will plan contact classes in multiple format to suit the project work situations and university guidelines such as contact classes in ILT (instructor Led training) and / or VILT (virtual Instructor Led Training and Self-Directed / Recorded lecture sessions.

16. General:

i. This letter of enrolment is subject to the condition that you have not provided us with any false declaration or wilfully suppressed any material information. If you have, you will be liable for cancellation of enrolment from the WILP without any prior notice.

ii. The terms of this letter of enrolment may be specifically enforced legally, if required. In this connection, if any of the provisions of this letter are declared or found to be void or unenforceable due to any reason whatsoever, the remaining provisions of this letter shall continue in full force and effect.

iii. These enrolment terms supersede and replace any existing agreement or understanding, if any, between Wipro and you relating to the same subject matter.

iv. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from enrolling under this agreement. In the event that you are not a citizen of the country of posting, you should have a valid work permit to work in the country of posting.

v. During the period of enrolment you are required to comply with all policies of WILP and Wipro. These policies are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to the Scholar Trainees from time to time. You agree to comply with all policies as modified from time to time.

17. On Completion/Cancellation of Academic Program:

i. On Completion of the academic program or cancellation of your enrolment , as the case may be, you will immediately surrender to Wipro/ the Academy all specifications, formulae, documents, literature, drawings or records, etc. belonging to Wipro/ the Academy or relating to its business and shall not make or retain any copies of these items.

ii. You are not eligible to receive testimonial certificate if you do not successfully complete the academic study in accordance with this letter of enrolment and the study scheme formulated by the Academy.

iii. Wipro reserves the right to offer employment at its sole discretion to a Scholar trainee on successful and satisfactory completion of the academic study.

18. Acceptance of Enrolment Letter:

Upon accepting the above terms and conditions, you are required to return the duplicate of this letter of enrolment, duly signed by you as a token of your acceptance on the day of joining WILP program.

Please confirm that the above terms are acceptable to you and that you accept the enrolment by signing a copy of this letter of enrolment and submit the same on the date of joining.

19. Work Allocation:

As part of your work responsibilities, you may be assigned to work on certain projects/accounts or other assignments as may be deemed fit by the Company in its sole discretion. Refusal to accept and deliver on such assignments shall be treated as a refusal to work and may result in termination of your employment or other disciplinary action.

Yours sincerely,

For Wipro Limited,

Aparna Shailen
General Manager - Human Resources

I have read, understood and agree to accept the enrolment on the terms and conditions herein.

I shall be present for the induction session on

ANNEXURE – III

INITIAL INDUCTION PROGRAM

The Talent Transformation team at Wipro groom's campus selects to help them face the challenges of the corporate world.

A holistic 360 degree approach to training is adopted and helps them hone their fundamental computer skills followed by insights into Wipro businesses, process, technology and behavioural skills.

To understand and appreciate the mindset of the young Trainees and ensure that the transformation is smooth, the induction program is done by a team of dedicated professionals who have exposure to the academic and corporate sectors alike. Project Readiness Program (PRP) is a training program designed to address the basic learning needs of the Trainees.

Corporate Readiness Program - CRP

The CRP program is focused on making young Trainees comfortable in a corporate environment. This program starts with a corporate induction.

"EMERGE" a behavioural skills building training program ensures that the fresh Trainee start feeling at ease in the "corporate world". This activity based behavioural intervention informs the new entrants about the corporate work culture and business etiquette.

Technology Readiness Program - TRP

The technology training provides critical technical skills required to work on projects allocated to Trainees and prepare to face the demands of the project world. We begin doing this by familiarizing with Wipro's businesses and work environment.

The methodology of training is "Project Based Learning" (PBL) approach, the entire learning is designed around a series of projects that the recruits are expected to complete individually by learning and applying various topics required to complete the project. Starting with individual projects, the PBL approach ends with recruits working on a team project.

ANNEXURE – IV

I have read and understood the terms of my enrolment letter. I agree and acknowledge that I am a Student/Scholar trainee with Wipro's WILP. I further undertake that I shall not represent to any person within Wipro or any other third party that I am an employee of Wipro Ltd and I fully understand that such false representation shall entail severe disciplinary action including immediate cancellation of my enrolment.

With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

for EY Global Delivery Services India LLP

Dear MD Mujeeb Ur Rehman G,

Subject: Letter of intent

With reference to the campus selection process and the subsequent interviews that you had with us, we are pleased to extend a letter of intent subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position:

You will be offered a position in "EY Global Delivery Services India LLP" (the "Firm").

2. Date of joining and work location:

Your date of joining the company and work location will be communicated to you at a later stage.

3. Annual Fixed compensation:

You shall be paid an annual fixed compensation of INR.483000/- per annum. The annual fixed compensation will be subject to applicable taxes as per the provision of IncomeTax Act & will be paid to you after deduction of income tax and other applicable taxes at source.

As per policy of the Firm, in addition to your fixed compensation you will be eligible to participate in the EY GDS Variable Pay Bonus Program, which drives a pay for performance approach providing differential reward based on EY GDS, business unit and personal performance. This will be payable on or before 31 August 2023. This is subject to you being employed with the Firm as on the date of payment of Variable Pay Bonus. Employees who join the Firm during the year will be eligible for a prorated Variable Pay Bonus payment. The Variable Pay Bonus amount is subject to income tax deduction as per rules prescribed under the tax laws.

4. Education Qualification:

This letter of intent is subject to your successful completion of Btech exams by September 2023.

Please note that a detailed offer letter would be issued to you subsequently.

Looking forward to a mutually beneficial association.

Thanking you.

Engagement Letter

We are pleased to appoint you in our organization as Assistant Store Manager Trainee subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Your term of engagement will commence from 15 Jul 2024 and expire on 14 Jul 2025 during which you will render services to our Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) premises at Bangalore specified from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter executed by you on 15 Jul 2024. Further you shall be bound by terms of this engagement letter and that you shall act in accordance with the instructions, rules or regulations received by you from TeamLease or any authorized person of TeamLease.

2. You hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

   i. You shall perform the services, in a professional manner, at the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) location until the expiry of the term or termination of your engagement.
   ii. During the term of your engagement, you shall render services exclusively to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or any of its group companies, subsidiaries or affiliates as instructed by TeamLease. Further you shall not engage either directly or indirectly in any trade, business or employment during the term of your engagement, whether for or without any commercial gain, in any manner whatsoever.
   iii. You shall not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) or TeamLease.
   iv. You shall not receive any payments, gifts or gratuities of any nature either directly or indirectly from the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) unless agreed to by TeamLease except for any rewards or incentives based on your performance which shall be at the sole discretion of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).
   v. You shall extend all cooperation to Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) employees, consultants, representatives etc., and do all such things as may be necessary and comply with all terms of the engagement letter so as to effectively undertake the work.
   vi. Report and be present at the designated location during the working hours mentioned by the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) and abide by the rules and regulations as intimated by TeamLease.
   vii. Comply with the safety, health and other rules and regulations of TeamLease as intimated to you.
   viii. Comply with leave policy as intimated through the associate handbook ix. You shall not divulge any trade secret or confidential information which you come across during the term of your engagement or in course of services being provided to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited).
   x. During your engagement, TeamLease reserves the right to transfer you to any location within the territory of India for executing the services to the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited). Further TeamLease reserves the right to depute your services to the Client's (Arvind Fashions Limited) affiliates, group companies or subsidiaries at any location within the territory of India.

3. During the term of this engagement, the nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of a Contract of Service for a fixed period. By executing this letter of engagement neither TeamLease offers you any employment with TeamLease nor you become an employee of TeamLease. Upon expiry or termination of this engagement letter, your engagement with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

4. You shall not act in any act subversive of any discipline or insubordination of your duties or any misconduct including but not limited to theft, fraud or misrepresentation or any event such that of prolonged absenteeism, destruction or damage to the property of the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited), then in such event, TeamLease shall be at liberty to take necessary disciplinary action against you and shall be at liberty to forthwith terminate this engagement.

5. In case TeamLease finds your services are not in conformity with the requisite service level standards, then TeamLease reserves the right to initiate a performance improvement plan and further in case you fail to perform as per the said requisite standards, despite being provided the performance improvement plan, then TeamLease reserves the right to terminate your services accordingly.

6. Either party may terminate this engagement by issuing 30 days notice in writing or payment of 30 days' basic salary in lieu of notice thereof. Teamlease reserves the right to waive the applicable notice period, at its discretion. Notwithstanding anything contained herein in case of any breach of the terms of this engagement letter, TeamLease shall be entitled to forthwith terminate your engagement.

7. Termination of this engagement shall not affect the obligations of the parties that have been incurred prior to such termination and TeamLease shall promptly settle all your dues after making the applicable deductions.

8. You agree to defend, indemnify and hold TeamLease or the Client (Arvind Fashions Limited) harmless from any and all claims, damages, liability, attorneys fees and expenses on account of your failure to perform any of your obligations under this engagement letter or for misconduct or for violation of any law or for creation of any legal liability by you.

9. In the event of any dispute between you and TeamLease, the parties shall negotiate with each other and endevaour to amicably resolve the said dispute. In case of any failure to amicably resolve any dispute then the same shall be referred to a sole arbitrator appointed by TeamLease. The arbitration shall be conducted in English language, in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, at Bangalore, Karnataka, India. This Engagement Letter shall be governed by the laws of India.

10. Details of your salary breakup will be as per the Annexure attached herein. You hereby authorize TeamLease to make all salary payments required to be made to you by TeamLease including all reimbursements either by way of Cheque or by directly crediting the amounts to your bank account.

11. You will be entitled to an employer's contribution of Provident fund to the extent of 12% of your basic salary and applicable ESI contribution. You will also be covered by Medical and Accident Insurance and will be entitled to all other statutory benefits whichever is applicable during the contract period. It is hereby clarified that if you fail to submit the ESIC, PF, Gratuity nomination forms together with any other document as required under the applicable labour legislations, TeamLease shall not incur any liability with regards to any Claims under the said applicable labour legislations.

12. In addition to the terms contained herein, your relationship with TeamLease may be subject to such other additional terms and conditions as may be communicated to you from time to time in writing by TeamLease and you hereby agree to have read and clearly understood the terms of employment provided in the Service Rules, which is attached herein.

13. During your engagement with TeamLease, if we find any irregularity or insufficiency in the documents submitted by you or in case, we find any incorrect, inaccurate or any misleading information while conducting reference checks then this engagement letter stands cancelled/revoked.
14. The nature of your relationship with TeamLease will be that of contract of service from 15 Jul 2024 to 14 Jul 2025. Upon expiry or termination of the work Assignment, your employment with TeamLease shall stand terminated forthwith.

Dear Yoganand D,

Sub: Enrolment letter to Wipro's Work Integrated Learning Program ("WILP") as Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program

Welcome to WILP!

With reference to your application, it is our pleasure to enroll you as a Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program. This is a scholarship program customized as a robust academic and training program which will enable you to obtain M-Tech degree from one of the premier engineering institution / University in India.

The duration of the academic program shall be 48 months from the date of enrolment to the academic program. You will be enrolled into the academic program within 12 months from date of joining. Your date of joining will be intimated through a separate communication.

We hope you enjoy the learning with WILP and have an enriching experience being a part of Wipro Limited ("Wipro or "Company").

Please read through the terms and conditions of your enrolment as provided below.

We look forward to having a long and fruitful relationship with you at WILP, Wish you all the best!

Yours sincerely,
For Wipro Limited,

Aparna Shailen
General Manager - Human Resources

Endorsement

I accept the enrolment and the terms and conditions thereof as specified below. I shall report for undergoing study on

Terms & Conditions of Scholarship

1. PROFILE:

You have been selected to be a part of Wipro's WILP and are enrolled as a Scholar Trainee- Work Integrated Learning Program. Upon joining WILP, you will have to undergo a "Project Readiness Program" ('PRP') that prepares you to participate in projects at the Company as part of this learning program. This robust academic program will also enable you to obtain M-Tech degree from one of the premier engineering Institution / University upon successful completion of the course.

2. DURATION:

The duration of your academic program will be for a period of 48 months from the date of enrolment to the academic program. You will be enrolled into the academic program within 12 months from date of joining. Unless the Company extends the period of your study in writing, which is done solely at the discretion of the Company, your enrolment would automatically terminate at the end of the stated 48 months.

In case the Company extends the academic period (in writing) you will continue to be enrolled as a Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program with WILP.

3. Appointment details:

We provide support to our global customers through various Company locations in India to suit customer requirements by operating 24x7. You would be operating from any of these locations and in any of the shifts, including night shift, as may be decided by the Company, keeping in mind the business needs and deliverables to customers.

4. Scholarship/Stipend and Benefits

During your period of enrolment, you would be entitled to a consolidated monthly scholarship.

Apart from the monthly scholarship, the Company will provide you with life & accidental insurance that would include a cover for you, the premium / cost will be taken care of by Wipro. This is a voluntary benefit offered by the Company and the details of the same are listed below.

i. A Group Personal Accident Insurance (GPAI) coverage of Rs.12,00,000/- . You could also choose to get additional coverage for a nominal and highly negotiated premium. More details on the policy are available in My Policies section in myWipro, the HR portal at Wipro.

ii. Group Life Insurance coverage of Rs.14, 00,000/-. This sum insured is inclusive of cover as per EDLI (Employee Deposit Linked Insurance). You can also get an extra coverage for a nominal and highly negotiated premium. More details on the policy are available on My Policies Section in myWipro, the HR portal at Wipro.

In addition to the above, you are also eligible for medical insurance cover towards hospitalization.

You are eligible for a floater coverage of Rs.2,00,000/- per annum for family (self, spouse & children) towards hospitalization. There will be a deduction from your monthly scholarship/stipend depending on your marital/family status towards the base sum insured premium. 10% of the claim amount would need to be borne by the employee/Scholar trainee.

Base Medical insurance is to be availed by the employee as default. It is accounted for in deductions as a nominal monthly charge. Top-Up cover is voluntary and charged as applicable during renewal timelines.

If you wish to enhance the coverage, a top up cover option is also available for a highly negotiated premium. More details on the policy are available on My Policies Section in myWipro, the HR portal at Wipro.

The below table lists down your scholarship details:

(*) You shall be responsible for payment of all statutory contributions, taxes, dues and levies as may be required under the relevant laws including contributions under Employees' State Insurance Corporation Act (at 0.75% of your Scholarship) as and when applicable to you. Such contributions, taxes, dues and levies where required, shall be deducted from your Scholarship and benefits according to applicable laws and regulations.

Your fourth-year scholarship will continue until completion of your M-Tech program. Your enrolment into the MTech academic program within 12 months from date of joining.

You shall be eligible to receive a onetime "joining bonus" of Rs.75,000 after you join Wipro along with your first month salary. All applicable taxes on the payment of this amount will be borne by you. Please note in the event you leave the organization within 12 months from the date of joining, payment processed under Joining bonus shall be recovered from the employee at the time of exit.

The enhancement of the scholarship at the end of each academic year of study will be at the discretion of the Company and subject to your satisfactory progress of study, acquisition of skills, behavior, regularity and punctuality in attendance. Your continued enrolment in the course, will be at the discretion of the Company, and is subject to satisfactory academic performance and other requirements as prescribed in the WILP portal.

In case your project performance at any stage is not found to be at par with the requirement of WILP, then you would be placed on performance improvement program (PIP). If you fail to successfully complete the PIP, the Company may at its sole discretion discontinue your enrolment in the WILP program.

Book Allowance:

A Book Allowance of Rs.1,250/- will be provided to you per semester. This allowance will be given every semester except the last semester when you will be engaged in dissertation. The allowance will be paid to you centrally along with your scholarship during the course of each semester. The allowance will be subject to tax. Book allowance is applicable and paid only when you are registered for the semester.

5. Training Agreement:

i. This letter of enrolment is subject to the execution of a training agreement in the prescribed proforma with Wipro Limited, Sarjapur Road, Doddakannelli, Bengaluru-560035 on or before joining the program (“Training Agreement”).

ii. This Training agreement shall be for a total period of 60 Months where you will be mentored for developing your skills and knowledge. This included technical training, in various formats, both online and offline and practical experience in various projects. The Company invests on your behalf for the cost of these trainings. Should you discontinue the WILP program or your enrolment with WILP is cancelled for any reason whatsoever before the completion of 60 months from the date of joining, the training expenses of Rs.75,000/-(Rupees Seventy five thousand only) will have to be paid by you as detailed in the Training Agreement.

6. PROJECT READINESS PROGRAM (PRP)

Upon enrolment, you will have to undergo a Project Readiness Program (PRP) to prepare you to participate in projects. This is offered by Wipro’s - Talent Transformation Department to all campus and off-campus selects. The broad objective of PRP is to equip you with the necessary knowledge and skills that will enable you to start working on real-life project work which is an integral part of the WILP.

7. Regulations of Academic study:

i. You will be enrolled for M-Tech program with a renowned institution (“University”) that collaborates with Wipro for WILP.

ii. Course specialization includes but is not limited to Software Systems, Software Engineering, Information Technology, Computing Systems and Infrastructure Management, Data Analytics, IoT, Cloud, Digital & Cyber security, Embedded Systems.

xix. The 8th semester of study is fully devoted for dissertation / project work

xx. If a Scholar trainee’s CGPA is less than 5.5, the Scholar trainee will not be permitted to register for the dissertation. He/she has to re-appear for exams and secure a CGPA of 5.5 before taking up the dissertation. Also, a Scholar trainee with an E grade in any course will not be permitted to register for the Dissertation

xxi. Project / Dissertation work has to be carried out by each individual separately. Teamwork is not permitted.

xxii. The dissertation has to be completed strictly as per the guidelines that are outlined by collaborating institution.

xxiii. WILP Scholar trainees are expected to maintain decorum and discipline in line with Wipro's professional work culture and environment.

xxiv. In cases where a Scholar trainee deviates from the expected behaviour as prescribed by the WILP and partnering institution from time to time , strict action will be taken and the decision of the WILP Team / faculty /, University would be final and binding.

xxv. Breach of integrity will be dealt with sternly. Such Scholar trainees will be asked to discontinue their studies and also expelled from WILP program.

xxvi. On successful completion of the study, you will be eligible to receive the M-Tech degree from the collaborating University, in recognition of your successfully completing the course.

xxvii. All Scholar trainees of the WILP will be given testimonials at the end of the successful completion of the M-Tech degree program. The testimonial contains the timeline in the WILP and the kind of project works carried during this opportunity.

Mode of contact session, examination pattern and other academic program norms are subject to change based on the prevailing situation / University norms declared from time to time. Decision of the University would be final and binding.

8. Conflict of Interest:

i. During your enrolment period with the WILP, you will focus exclusively on the requirements of the program. In addition to your study and academic requirements, you are required to engage yourself exclusively in the work assigned by Wipro and shall not take up any independent or individual assignments (whether part time or full time, in an advisory capacity or otherwise) directly or indirectly without the express written consent of Head /

Manager of WILP Academy

ii. You shall ensure that you shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any activity or have any interest in, or perform any services for any person who is involved in activities, which are or shall be in conflict with the interests of Wipro.

iii. The Conflict of Interest Policy also refers to the need on your part, during your enrolment and for a period of one year from the cessation of your enrolment with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation) not to solicit, induce or encourage:

   a. Any student/scholar trainee of the WILP to abandon /withdraw their enrolment with the program or to accept enrolment and/or employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   b. Any employee of Wipro to terminate their employment with Wipro or to accept employment with any competitor, supplier or any customer with whom you have a connection.

   c. Any customer or vendor of Wipro to move their existing business with Wipro to a third party or to terminate their business relationship with Wipro.

   d. Any existing employee and/or student of WILP to become associated with, or perform services of any type for any third party.

iv. In case of any conflict or doubt, please discuss the matter with Head / Manager of WILP, to understand Wipro's position on this and resolve the conflict.

9. Obligation and Responsibilities:

i. During the study period you will be governed by the WILP regulations and instructions as may be modified, from time to time, in relation to conduct, discipline and other matters.

ii. During your study as part of WILP, Company expects you to undergo study in the area in which you are placed, with a high standard of initiative and efficiency. This is critical and Company has zero tolerance towards any deviations.

iii. You would not be allowed to seek membership of any local or public body without the written approval from the Head / Manager of WILP.

iv. During the study period and thereafter, you would not be allowed to give out to anyone in writing or by word of mouth or otherwise, particulars or details of work - process, technical know-how, research carried out, security arrangements, or administrative and/or organizational matters of confidential or secret nature which you may come across during your academic study or become known to you by virtue of your undergoing study under WILP or otherwise.

v. You are bound by all regulations, instructions and policies of the WILP and Wipro. These are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to Scholar trainees from time to time and you will be bound to comply with the same.

vi. In consideration of the opportunities, trainings and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by WILP/Wipro and in the course of your association with WILP. This covenant shall endure during your association and beyond the cessation of your association with WILP (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

vii. In connection with your association with Wipro as part of the WILP and during the term of your association upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business or academic session hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

During the period of academic study, if you develop or conceptualize inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques and improvements (including without limitation computer software) solely or jointly with others in relation to the operation of the WILP / Wipro, such developments will be fully communicated to the WILP academy and will be the sole intellectual property of Wipro. You agree to cooperate in the execution of documents to facilitate the assignment of such intellectual property when required.

10. Confidentiality:

i. In consideration of the opportunities, training and access to new techniques and know-how that will be made available to you, you will be required to comply with the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro. Therefore, please maintain all Confidential Information as defined from time to time in the Confidentiality Policy of Wipro, as secret and confidential and do not use or disclose any such Confidential Information except as may be required under obligation of law or as may be required by Wipro and in the course of your enrolment. This covenant shall endure during your enrolment and beyond the cessation of your enrolment with Wipro (irrespective of the circumstances of, or the reasons for, the cessation).

ii. During your training on projects at Wipro, you will be expected not to use or disclose any confidential information, including trade secrets, of any former employer (if any) or other person with whom you have an obligation of confidentiality and by signing below you affirm that you have no conflicting obligations or non-compete agreements that would prevent you from working without limitation for Wipro.

11. Assignment of Intellectual Property

In connection with your enrolment and during the term of your enrolment, upon conception or creation, you shall disclose and assign to Wipro as its exclusive property, all inventions, ideas, concepts, discoveries, techniques, and improvements (including without limitation legal documents, training materials, computer software and associated materials) developed or conceived by you solely or jointly with others (whether or not during business hours), and shall comply with the Policies of Wipro in relation to Intellectual Property.

12. Posting

During the initial study period, initially you would be made familiar with Wipro, but you may if needed be re-assigned or transferred to another division, department, establishment or new location where Wipro, has its office or operation and WILP classes are running in the particular location, in India, without enhancing the scholarship amount. On placement of this nature, you will also be governed by the disciplinary rules and regulations as applicable in that unit/branch. You may also be placed in any sister company of Wipro, for practical studies.

13. Misconduct:

i. In case you are charged with any misconduct or disciplinary issue during your study period, your enrolment with WILP may be temporarily placed on suspension without payment of scholarship amount, for such period as Wipro may deem fit. If the charges against you are proved to be true, your enrolment may be immediately cancelled , without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu of notice not withstanding any clause of this letter of enrolment. It is clarified that this clause is without prejudice to Wipro’s rights to enforce the Training Agreement duly signed by you even after cancellation of your enrolment for whatever reasons as the case may be.

ii. Notwithstanding the condition regarding written notice of termination and without prejudice to Wipro’s right to enforce the Training agreement, Wipro shall have the right to terminate your academic study without any notice or payment of scholarship in lieu thereof, if any declaration given or information furnished by you to WILP/ Wipro is found to be false or if you are found to have willfully suppressed any material information.

Please note that at any stage, whether during your selection process or upon enrolment with the WILP, if it is brought to our notice that you have indulged in malpractices or used illegal means to clear your online assessment, Wipro shall withdraw or revoke the enrolment and cancel the same with immediate effect and we reserve our rights to take suitable action against you as we may deem fit.

14. Cancellation of Enrolment:

Notwithstanding any of the clauses of this letter of enrolment, Company reserves the right at its sole discretion to cancel this enrolment during the study period without assigning any reason, by giving one months' (30 days) notice or one month's scholarship/stipend in lieu of notice.

15. Study Hours:

i. As a Scholar Trainee – Work Integrated Learning Program, you will be called upon to undergo studies during the hours and days as may be fixed by WILP from time to time as per the University requirements.

ii. You would be assigned to any of the locations and any project work as part of your WILP as may be decided by the Company.

iii. The full day lecture sessions will be held at any of Wipro’s other establishments/outsourced venue. You may also be called upon to attend academic study as and when required on holidays, as may be scheduled in accordance with the convenience of the organizing team of the WILP.

iv. The university will plan contact classes in multiple format to suit the project work situations and university guidelines such as contact classes in ILT (instructor Led training) and / or VILT (virtual Instructor Led Training and Self-Directed / Recorded lecture sessions.

16. General:

i. This letter of enrolment is subject to the condition that you have not provided us with any false declaration or wilfully suppressed any material information. If you have, you will be liable for cancellation of enrolment from the WILP without any prior notice.

ii. The terms of this letter of enrolment may be specifically enforced legally, if required. In this connection, if any of the provisions of this letter are declared or found to be void or unenforceable due to any reason whatsoever, the remaining provisions of this letter shall continue in full force and effect.

iii. These enrolment terms supersede and replace any existing agreement or understanding, if any, between Wipro and you relating to the same subject matter.

iv. You warrant that you are not prevented by a court or by any other administrative or judicial order from enrolling under this agreement. In the event that you are not a citizen of the country of posting, you should have a valid work permit to work in the country of posting.

v. During the period of enrolment you are required to comply with all policies of WILP and Wipro. These policies are updated / modified on a periodic basis and new policies may be introduced and notified to the Scholar Trainees from time to time. You agree to comply with all policies as modified from time to time.

17. On Completion/Cancellation of Academic Program:

i. On Completion of the academic program or cancellation of your enrolment , as the case may be, you will immediately surrender to Wipro/ the Academy all specifications, formulae, documents, literature, drawings or records, etc. belonging to Wipro/ the Academy or relating to its business and shall not make or retain any copies of these items.

ii. You are not eligible to receive testimonial certificate if you do not successfully complete the academic study in accordance with this letter of enrolment and the study scheme formulated by the Academy.

iii. Wipro reserves the right to offer employment at its sole discretion to a Scholar trainee on successful and satisfactory completion of the academic study.

18. Acceptance of Enrolment Letter:

Upon accepting the above terms and conditions, you are required to return the duplicate of this letter of enrolment, duly signed by you as a token of your acceptance on the day of joining WILP program.

Please confirm that the above terms are acceptable to you and that you accept the enrolment by signing a copy of this letter of enrolment and submit the same on the date of joining.

19. Work Allocation:

As part of your work responsibilities, you may be assigned to work on certain projects/accounts or other assignments as may be deemed fit by the Company in its sole discretion. Refusal to accept and deliver on such assignments shall be treated as a refusal to work and may result in termination of your employment or other disciplinary action.

ANNEXURE – III

INITIAL INDUCTION PROGRAM

The Talent Transformation team at Wipro groom's campus selects to help them face the challenges of the corporate world.

A holistic 360 degree approach to training is adopted and helps them hone their fundamental computer skills followed by insights into Wipro businesses, process, technology and behavioural skills.

To understand and appreciate the mindset of the young Trainees and ensure that the transformation is smooth, the induction program is done by a team of dedicated professionals who have exposure to the academic and corporate sectors alike. Project Readiness Program (PRP) is a training program designed to address the basic learning needs of the Trainees.

Corporate Readiness Program - CRP

The CRP program is focused on making young Trainees comfortable in a corporate environment. This program starts with a corporate induction.

"EMERGE" a behavioural skills building training program ensures that the fresh Trainee start feeling at ease in the "corporate world". This activity based behavioural intervention informs the new entrants about the corporate work culture and business etiquette.

Technology Readiness Program - TRP

The technology training provides critical technical skills required to work on projects allocated to Trainees and prepare to face the demands of the project world. We begin doing this by familiarizing with Wipro's businesses and work environment.

The methodology of training is "Project Based Learning" (PBL) approach, the entire learning is designed around a series of projects that the recruits are expected to complete individually by learning and applying various topics required to complete the project. Starting with individual projects, the PBL approach ends with recruits working on a team project.

ANNEXURE – IV

I have read and understood the terms of my enrolment letter. I agree and acknowledge that I am a Student/Scholar trainee with Wipro's WILP. I further undertake that I shall not represent to any person within Wipro or any other third party that I am an employee of Wipro Ltd and I fully understand that such false representation shall entail severe disciplinary action including immediate cancellation of my enrolment.

ANNEXURE - III

We are pleased to highlight few of our key initiatives and policies for your ready reference.

India Integrity

NielsenIQ's long-term business success and its ability to attract clients, talented employees and investors are dependent on high standards of ethics, integrity, and compliance. The India Integrity Programme was launched as a means to bring to notice any compromise in these values. The India Integrity is a dedicated point of contact to whom you can raise your concern anonymously and in confidence, around any kind of integrity breach.

Examples of Misconduct - Fraud, Loss of Confidentiality, Kickbacks, Bribery, Falsifying Expenses, Conflict of Interest, Discrimination, Harassment, Copyright Violations, Inappropriate Computer use, Data Integrity, Data Theft, Data Falsification, Panel Integrity issues, Other Legal Compliance issues, etc.

If you have questions or concerns about compliance or integrity, view the Whistle blower procedures, call the Helpline or write to us.

E-mail: IndiaIntegrity@NielsenIQ.com
Report a concern online in 38 native languages, anonymously at https://iwf.tnwgrc.com/NielsenIQ
Call the Whistle-blower Hotline and speak to confidential, third party representatives 24 x 7
Dial: (000-117) 855-373-5902

To know more, we encourage you to visit Compliance & Integrity page on the NielsenIQ intranet and familiarize yourself with the process and methods of reporting noncompliance or misconduct.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace

Keeping in line with NielsenIQ's commitment to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees, it is imperative to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment at the workplace.

The policy is formulated in pursuance of the Vishakha Guidelines, 1997 which is now the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. Based on the policy, we have constituted a Local Complaints Redressal Committee chaired by the Chief Diversity Officer, NielsenIQ India.

In case of a concern, we would recommend the aggrieved woman to report to the committee or any of the committee members in writing.

For complaints, write to: WPHPIndia@NielsenIQ.com All queries and matters will be treated in strict confidence.

Based on the written complaint, the committee would conduct an enquiry and conclude before initiating action against the defendant (or the complainant in case of false complaints).
