REPORT

"Yoga is the journey of the self, through the self, to the self"

CMR University celebrated the International Yoga Day, along with the world on 21st June 2019, for the 5th consecutive year at the Basket Ball court, CMRU OMBR Campus from 7.00am to 8.00am. Nearly 70 students actively participated from CMR University, guided by the SVVT Yoga Kendra Instructors.

All the participants realized that Yoga that has become a part of our daily life in today's world and that it is a complete path by itself. The day tried to instill into the young minds the uplifting powers of Yoga as a force that unifies body, soul and mind.

The emphasis was not just on physical fitness but a holistic development of the mind, body and soul. The one-hour Yoga session concluded with a few inspiring speeches by the faculties.

Report

"Champions are not made in a gym, champions are made from something they have deep inside them." With this motto in mind the Department of Physical Education CMR University organized an online sports quiz for students and staff. The quiz was definitely an eye opener, as the questions were on games such as Yoga, Cricket, Basketball, Football, volleyball, Table Tennis, Shuttle Badminton, Hockey, and Chess. The online platform was unquestionably advantageous as 800 students participated.

The winners were immediately given e-certificate for the same. There was an amazing response from all the schools. Feedback and given by the students was maturing and inspiring. I quote a few students. The winners were immediately given e-certificate for the same. There was an amazing response from all the schools.

Given below are the details about the Online Sports Quiz.

CMR UNIVERSITY

Private University Established in Karnataka State by Act No.45 of 2013

BENGALURU

Recognised by UGC

CMR University held its independence day on 15th August 2021,. The 75th Independence Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm by all the students of the school. The students decorated the stage with colourful balloons and ribbons. Pictures of our great leaders and freedom fighters were placed on the notice board. Vice chancellor hoisted the flag and the national anthem was played.

Later, students presented patriotic songs and poems. There were speeches by students, external participants of and the chief guest. Then the chief guest inaugurated an exhibition on our freedom struggle and our freedom fighters. There was a feeling of pride and patriotism in everyone's heart. The program was concluded with a vote of thanks. At the end, sweets were distributed to the students.

The Resource person for the event (OMBR Campus) Ms. Isha Sharma: she is a certified professional yoga trainer from Art of Living organization. As a renowned Yoga Teacher and Wellness Coach.

The event began with an inspiring introduction about International Yoga Day and its significance, delivered by Neel, the President of the Student Council, CMRU. Attendees were then treated to an invigorating Zumba session led by Shashank and Jordan, followed by a rejuvenating yoga session conducted by Ms. Isha Sharma, a renowned yoga instructor.

A captivating talk on the benefits of yoga was given by Bhavin Pandya from CII-YI, providing valuable insights into the profound effects of yoga on overall health. Participants were acknowledged and awarded Y20 certificates in recognition of their active participation. The event also featured engaging activities that fostered a sense of unity and friendly competition among the attendees. A plank challenge brought out the creativity and physical endurance of the participants. Additionally, an arm-wrestling competition added excitement to the event.

The Presidential Address by Dr. Subba Reddy, Pro Vice Chancellor. The felicitation ceremony, where the management honored the contributors, added a touch of prestige to the event. The efforts of the organizing committee, instructors, and resource person Ms. Isha Sharma were acknowledged for their valuable contributions to the success of the event.

In conclusion, the International Yoga Day event celebrated the essence of yoga while empowering the youth. It successfully brought together individuals from diverse backgrounds to embrace the practice of yoga and experience its numerous benefits.

The Resource person for the event (Lakeside Campus) Mr. Arun. P. (Art of Living Foundation Yoga Teacher & Sri Meru Chikitsa Practitioner). The event started off with Zumba warm up by the students where even faculties and guests were involved. Continued with yoga sessions and demonstrations led by skilled instructor Mr. Arun P, from an external yoga organization called 'Art of Living'. Followed by the yoga sessions, various other activities such as plank, arm wrestling, reel making and most fit faculty.

The Presidential Address by Dr. V.R. Manjunath, Dean, School of Engineering Technology. Participants experienced the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga, fostering a sense of well-being and community. The event raised awareness about the importance of yoga in maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

International Yoga Day – City Campus

The theme for this event was “The World is One Family”. We were honoured to have our Vice Chancellor as our Guest of Honour, who participated in the event. It was our privilege to have Shri. M.R. Saktiya Narayanan as our resource person. He is keen on helping people troubled by metropolitan living. He specializes in breathing exercises, yoga postures, guided imagery and meditation to achieve complete restoration, self-improvement and healing in all aspects of mental, physical and spiritual well-being.

The day kicked off with Zumba as the first event which was facilitated by Ms. Spandana and Ms. Jenifer, both faculties and students remained energetic throughout the whole session. Post the informative welcome address by the MC- Ms Spandana, the participants got on their mats to perform Yoga. Shri. M.R. Saktiya Narayanan was the instructor and through his yoga prowess, took everyone to a refreshing meditative realm. With this vibrancy, everyone was feeling calm yet full of energy as they prepared for the most awaited fun-filled activities that followed.

A number of fitness challenges were conducted for students and Faculty. It was concluded with the prize distribution where all the winners and the participants received their certificates and were adorned with medals. Overall it was an amazing event and a wonderful experience to be a part of.
